WELCOME

This handbook has been prepared to assist employees in knowing their rights, responsibilities, and benefits as County employees. It is not meant to imply a permanent contract between the employee and County, but rather has been put together to provide basic information to the employee. It may be altered as laws and County policies and procedures change.

Each County Elected Official is a completely autonomous Appointing Authority. Appointing Authorities have the authority to and responsibility for their own employees as it relates to hiring, rate of pay, promotions, reductions, terminations, layoffs, establishing policy, and similar actions. Appointing Authorities may also alter some of the provisions of this Handbook as they deem appropriate. Other job related matters such as vacation, holidays, sick leave, workers' compensation, and the like, are set by statute and apply to all employees.

Employees working in departments with collective bargaining agreements should consult their union contract as those agreements may differ from County policy.

Employees should feel free to seek assistance from their immediate Supervisor, Department Head, or payroll personnel in their office. If staff members have any concerns about their job, they are encouraged to discuss these issues with supervisory personnel. Employees will be provided with the names and positions of all persons in their immediate department to assist them in becoming acquainted with co-workers.

Wood County is an Equal Opportunity Employer committed to providing all employees and applicants a workplace that is free from unfair treatment/discrimination. In compliance with the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission and the Ohio Civil Rights Commission, Wood County will not discriminate based on race, religion, color, sex, pregnancy, sexual orientation, genetic information, national origin and ancestry, age, veteran status, disability, or military status.

Wood County will not retaliate against any person because that person has opposed any unlawful discriminatory practice or because that person has made a charge, testified, assisted or participated in any manner in any investigation, proceeding or hearing.

The employment decisions below will be based solely on the individual's qualifications and the requirements of the position:

1. Recruitment/Hiring
2. Promotion
3. Tenure
4. Discharge
5. Compensation/Rates of Pay
6. Fringe Benefits
7. Job Training
8. Classification
9. Referral
10. Terms and Conditions of Employment
11. Promotions/Demotions
12. Disciplinary Actions
13. Layoffs>Returns from layoff

Department Heads/Supervisors shall ensure that their respective departments comply with the County's Fair Employment Policy as outlined above.

Employees shall not discriminate against co-workers or members of the public based on race, religion, color, sex, pregnancy, sexual orientation, national origin and ancestry, age, veteran status, disability, or military status while performing the duties of their position.

Employees must report in writing any act of discrimination in the workplace within five working days to the employee's immediate supervisor or any supervisor in the employee's chain of command. Supervisors shall submit the complaint in writing within two working days of receipt to the County Commissioners.

When a complaint of a discriminatory act has been received, Wood County will investigate and take appropriate remedial action.

Labor law postings have additional information regarding employee rights.

Affirmative Action Policy

ORC 4112.02
BCC 4/28/75 Rev. 95-833 Rev. 04-2361

Consistent with the County's commitment to Equal Employment Opportunity, Wood County has an Affirmative Action Policy. Wood County will not consider race, religion, color, national origin, ethnic heritage, marital status, sex, age, or disability in employment decisions. Wood County conducts periodic reviews of all employment practices to ensure the County's commitment to equal employment opportunity.

Classified and Unclassified Employees

ORC 124.01, 124.11, 124.34

County employees are by law either "classified" or "unclassified".

Employees in the classified service have many protections under Ohio's Civil Service laws. Classified employees may continue employment in their positions during good behavior and efficient service. Classified employees cannot be suspended, reduced in pay or position, or terminated except for the causes set forth in ORC 124.34. See Employee Discipline Procedures in this handbook.

Classified employees who are convicted of a felony forfeit their classified status and are moved to the unclassified service.

Unclassified employees are those persons exempted from classified service by statute; and/or persons employed by and directly responsible to elected county officials who hold a fiduciary or administrative relationship to such elected county officials. Employees with temporary or intermittent appointments are unclassified. Unclassified employees serve at the pleasure of their Appointing Authority, i.e., are employees at will.

If you are unsure of your employment status, ask your immediate Supervisor or your Appointing Authority.

Job Postings

Appointing Authorities hire the employees within offices, departments, and agencies under their jurisdiction.

Job postings are recommended for all vacant positions. However, only classified positions require formal job postings and employment selection procedures.

Existing or imminent classified vacancies above the entry level shall be posted internally for a minimum of five calendar days, except where a laid-off employee is eligible for reinstatement to the vacant position.

During the five day period, any current employee wishing to apply for a vacant position shall submit a written application to the Appointing Authority or designee. A current staff member who applies and does not meet the qualifications of the position shall receive written notification of non-selection upon filling the position.

If no employees are qualified for the vacant position, or if the vacancy is an entry level position, the job shall be filled from the applications of qualified persons with applications on file or the Appointing Authority may advertise by newspaper or through other employment channels for 10 working days.

Current job vacancies may be posted on the first floor of the Office Building next to the elevators, on the Internet at www.co.wood.oh.us, or on individual office/department bulletin boards.

Employee Selection

ORC 124.23(c)

Applicants for classified positions shall be evaluated based on education, training, capacity, knowledge, manual dexterity, and physical or psychological fitness.

An examination shall consist of one or more tests in any combination. Tests may be written, oral, physical, demonstration of skill or an evaluation of training and experiences and shall be designed to fairly test the relative capacity of the persons examined to discharge the particular duties of the position for which appointment is sought. Tests may include structured interviews, assessment centers, work simulations, examinations of knowledge, skill, and abilities, and any other acceptable testing methods. If minimum or maximum requirements are established for any experience, they shall be specified in the examination announcement.

Probation

ORC 124.27

OAC 123:1-19-01, 123:1-19-03, 123:1-19-04

The probationary period for all classified employees is fixed at 180 calendar days. A longer period, not in excess of one year, may be established for specific job classifications upon approval of the Appointing Authority.

Time spent on leave of absence without pay shall not be counted as part of the probationary period. Probationary periods shall be extended by an equal number of days the employee spent in no-pay status.

An Appointing Authority may, with the written consent of the employee extend an employee's probationary period for up to 60 days to allow additional time to review the employee's performance. Extensions must be approved prior to the end of the employee's original probationary period and the total probationary time shall not exceed one year.

Part-time employees who work a portion of each normal working day shall have their probationary period determined by the number of calendar days following appointment in the same manner as full-time employees. Employees who work an irregular schedule or who work less than the normal number of working days per week shall have their probationary period determined on the basis of time actually worked. A standard 180-day probationary period is equivalent to 1,000 hours worked.

The probationary period allows new employees to become accustomed to the duties of their new position and to demonstrate their capabilities to perform those tasks. The performance of the employee during this initial "testing" period is an important factor in the decision to retain the services of the employee during or after the probationary period.

If the service of a probationary employee is unsatisfactory, the employee may be removed or reduced at any time during the probationary period. Employees terminated during their probationary period do not have appeal rights.

Promotions and Transfers

ORC 124.31, 124.32
OAC 123-1-19-01, 123-1-23-12
BCC 07-2041 BCC 11-679

Vacancies in positions in the classified service shall be filled insofar as practicable by promotions following the employee section portion of this handbook. Employees shall serve a probationary period following each promotion. If the employee's services are found unsatisfactory, the employee may be removed, or reduced, at any time during the probationary period.

Employees can transfer to another Appointing Authority (inter-department) or within their Appointing Authority (intra-department).

Inter-Department Promotion/Transfer

If an employee accepts an inter-departmental promotion and is found to be unsatisfactory in the advanced position, the receiving Appointing Authority may remove the employee or may demote the employee to a position that is the same or similar to the previous position. The employee has no right to resume a position with the releasing Appointing Authority.

Inter-departmental transfers are a separation of employment and therefore, the employee must submit a resignation of employment.

Upon separation, employees with more than one year of public service must receive payment from the first Appointing Authority for accumulated but unused vacation leave at the rate of pay at separation. Sick leave balances are transferred with the employee to the new position.

These procedures may vary in other public agencies. Employees should check with employers for policies on prior service credit, etc.

Intra-Departmental Promotion/Transfer

If an employee accepts an intra-departmental promotion and is found to be unsatisfactory in the advanced position, the employee shall be demoted to the position from which the employee was promoted or to a similar position. Upon such demotion, the employee's salary shall be the same that the employee was receiving prior to promotion, except for changes in pay range that may have occurred or any step increase to which the employee would have been entitled in the lower classification.

An intra-departmental transfer is not a separation of employment.

At the discretion of the new Department Head, full-time employees may receive credit for accumulated unused vacation leave. All vacation credit not transferred shall be paid by the previous department. Sick leave balances will transfer.

Separation

ORC 325.17, 124.06, 124.32, 145.381 Rev. 04-2361 Rev. 07-2041 Rev. 08-2184

Employees who voluntarily resign from County employment must submit a written resignation to their supervisor at least two weeks prior to the date of departure. Employees serving in a supervisory capacity shall provide a two month notice of resignation, unless the Appointing Authority agrees to a reduction.

Upon the Appointing Authority's written acceptance of an employee's resignation, the employee is not able to rescind his/her resignation. The employee may request reconsideration in a written request for reinstatement. The Appointing Authority may elect to reinstate the employee prior to the separation date. If the vacancy was posted, the Appointing Authority shall notify all applicants that the vacancy is filled.

Employees must return all issued County property. Failure to return County property may result in prosecution for unauthorized use and/or theft of County property.

Wood County conducts exit interviews with employees separating from employment. The interview provides separation information such as payment of vacation and sick leave if applicable, OPERS retirement and refunds, withdrawals from deferred compensation programs, COBRA, and other separation-related information.

Employees retiring from Wood County service are encouraged to discuss their retirement plans with their Supervisor/Department Head at least six months prior to their retirement. OPERS recommends that employees file an application for retirement no more than six months, but no less than 30 days, prior to the effective date of retirement. For more information on retirement planning, contact OPERS.

Employees who separate from County service are eligible to receive a refund of their OPERS contributions three months after termination. The OPERS member handbook clarifies the advantages and disadvantages of withdrawal of contributions. To obtain a refund, secure an application for refund from your payroll officer or the OPERS website at www.opers.org.

Employees retiring under a public service retirement who seek reemployment in the same position shall provide their Appointing Authority written notification of their intent 90 days prior to their retirement. If a retirant's Appointing Authority is a board, commission, or legislative authority, that entity must give public notice and hold a public hearing for the rehiring of the retiree into the same position. For more information contact your payroll officer or OPERS.

Ohio law also restricts former employees from representing a client or acting in a representative capacity for any person in any matter in which the employee personally participated through decision, approval, disapproval, recommendation, the rendering of advice, investigation, or other substantial exercise or administrative discretion.

Voluntary Separation

OAC 123:1-31-03 BCC 04-2361 Rev. 07-2041

An employee in the classified service who is absent from duty habitually or for three or more successive duty days, without leave and without notice may be subject to removal for neglect of duty. Any employee who fails to report to work in this manner is deemed to have voluntarily resigned his/her position.

Disability Separation

ORC 124.32
OAC 123:1-30-01, 123:1-30-02
BCC 07-2041 BCC 11-679

A disability separation is a separation of service with a conditional right to reinstatement for a period of time for an employee who is unable to perform the essential job duties of the position due to a disabling illness, injury or condition. All affected employees will be advised of their rights should a disability separation become necessary. An Appointing Authority may require a medical or physiological examination for purposes of disability separation or reinstatement.

As members of the Ohio Public Employees Retirement System (OPERS), employees may be eligible for disability benefits. Additional information may be obtained by contacting OPERS directly.

Voluntary Separation

An employee may request a voluntary disability separation when the employee does not dispute his or her inability to perform the essential job duties of the position. The employee waives the right to a pre-separation hearing, but has the right to request reinstatement within two years of the date in which the employee was no longer performing in active work status.

Involuntary Separation

If an Appointing Authority receives substantial credible medical evidence of the employee's disability and determines that the employee is incapable of performing the employee's essential job duties due to the disabling illness, injury or condition, the Appointing Authority may place the employee on involuntary disability separation, including an employee who is unable to return to work following a personal leave of absence (see Section III Types of Leave). The Appointing Authority shall schedule a hearing on involuntary disability separation and send written notice to the employee at least 72 hours in advance of the hearing.

Layoff Procedures

ORC 124.321

An Appointing Authority may layoff personnel due to 1) lack of work, 2) abolishment of positions, or 3) lack of funds. Layoff procedures take into account such factors as type of appointment, status, years of service, and retention points.

Laid-off employees have recall rights for one year and have the option of displacing or “bumping” lower-ranked employees within the same classification series.

All affected employees will be advised of their rights should layoff become necessary.

Unemployment Compensation

ORC Chapter 4141

In the event of layoff, the Ohio Department of Job and Family Services determines an employee’s eligibility for unemployment benefits.

Prior Service

ORC 9.44, 124.34, 325.19

Employees shall provide written documentation of any prior service credit in the public sector within 30 days of employment. Prior service includes service with the State of Ohio or any political subdivision of the State, i.e., city, township, county, State University, public school district, Ohio National Guard, etc. Documentation shall include status of service, e.g., full-time or part-time; dates of service; number of bi-weekly pay periods in which services were rendered; and sick leave balance from most recent public employer.

If the service time qualifies, the Appointing Authority will make appropriate adjustments to vacation leave accrual rate and vacation and sick leave balances upon receipt of written documentation.

A request for credit for prior service after the first 30 days of Wood County employment will result in the adjustment of the accrual rate for the most recent six years of Wood County service only.

Employees who left other public sector employment due to conviction of a felony will not receive prior service credit for their previous public sector employment.

PAY PRACTICES

Hours of Work

ORC 325.17
Rev. 04- 2361 Rev. 07-2041 Rev. 08-2184 Rev. 11-679

The Appointing Authority assigns the hours of operation for each office or department under its control and may reassign work hours as necessary. Department Heads and/or Supervisors assign work schedules for individual employees.

Consistent and reliable attendance is an essential function of every position within the County.

When an employee has work duties which require hours in excess of regularly scheduled work hours, the employee and/or the Supervisor shall make every effort to adjust the employee's work schedule in the remainder of the standard work week to avoid work in excess of 40 hours.

In the alternative, the Supervisor shall reduce the number of vacation hours, compensatory time, personal, or other non-sick leave hours requested in the same work week by the number of hours worked in excess of regularly scheduled work hours. Employees who have worked over 40 hours in a standard work week may request that the extra hours worked be used to reduce sick leave requested in the same work week.

Public accountability requires employees to document the performance of their job duties with start and end times in addition to all other compensated time. Employees must keep accurate time records and may not make entries on time records of fellow employees.

Attendance at lectures, meetings, and training programs is not considered time worked if the employee's attendance is voluntary, i.e., not approved by the Appointing Authority.

Fair Labor Standards Act (FLSA) Status

The Fair Labor Standards Act (FLSA), prescribes standards for the basic minimum wage and overtime pay. It requires employers to pay covered employees who are not otherwise exempt at least the federal minimum wage and overtime pay of one-and-one-half-times the regular rate of pay.

The Appointing Authority shall determine those classifications in exempt (i.e., Executive, Administrative or Professional, etc.) status based on duties, salary, and education requirements as outlined by the Department of Labor Wage and Hour Division.

All employees are considered non-exempt unless exempt status is communicated in writing by the Appointing Authority.

Overtime

FLSA of 1938
ORC 4111.03

Overtime is payment for time worked in excess of 40 hours during a work week and is compensated at one and one-half times the employee's rate of pay. The following do not qualify as hours worked when calculating overtime pay: vacation, sick leave, compensatory time, personal leave, etc.

Employees may not work overtime without prior approval of the Supervisor or Department Head. While payment of overtime will be made, failure to obtain prior approval may result in disciplinary action.

Only employees who are nonexempt i.e., not Executive, Administrative, or Professional employees under the Fair Labor Standards Act (FLSA), are eligible for overtime pay.

The Appointing Authority reserves the right to restrict overtime compensation in lieu of compensatory time. If the Appointing Authority permits overtime and compensatory time is available, employees shall be granted compensatory time in lieu of overtime compensation.

Compensatory Time

FLSA
ORC 4111.03

Compensatory time (comp time) is paid time off work for time worked in excess of 40 hours during a work week. Wood County gives comp time to employees in lieu of overtime pay. Employees earn comp time in the same manner and at the same rate as overtime pay. Comp time shall be used within 180 days of accrual.

Appointing Authorities who do not elect to offer compensatory time, alter the timeframe in which such time shall be used, and/or restrict overtime shall provide employees written notice of the alternative policy to each employee at least ten days prior to its effective date (see ORC 4111.03 (B)).

Employees may not earn comp time without prior approval of the Supervisor or Department Head. While comp time will be credited to the employee, failure to obtain prior approval may result in disciplinary action.

FLSA nonexempt employees receive one and one-half hour of paid leave time and can accumulate up to 240 hours of comp time.

Administrative and Professional FLSA exempt employees earn comp time at one hour per hour worked in excess of the regular work schedule. Administrative and Professional FLSA exempt employees may earn up to 120 hours of comp time.

Executive FLSA exempt employees do not earn comp time.

Once the maximum number of hours is reached, the accrual of comp time ceases until a portion of the time is used.

Employees must complete a Request for Leave form when requesting to use comp time. Such request must have prior approval from the immediate Supervisor, Department Head and/or Appointing Authority. Use of comp time is charged in minimum units of one-quarter hours (.25 hours).

The Employer can require that an employee use his/her comp time and can require that the comp time be used at a time that minimizes disruption of the workplace.

Administrative and Professional FLSA exempt employees cannot receive cash payment for accrued compensatory time at separation.

Payroll

ORC 9.41, 325.17
BCC 7/30/91 Rev. 04-2361

For payroll purposes, pay periods begin on Sunday and end the Saturday of the following week. Payment for hours worked during a pay period is made bi-weekly on the second Friday following the completion of the pay period.

Payment is made through direct deposit (electronic transfer) for all new hires employed after September 1, 1991. Payment through direct deposit may take up to one month to implement. Any checking or savings account information supplied for payroll purposes will remain confidential.

Federal, state, and municipal laws require automatic deductions of appropriate taxes and other deductions from employee's wages including OPERS. Employees hired after April 1, 1986, must also pay Medicare tax based on their gross salary.

Employees may elect voluntary payroll deductions including insurance, deferred compensation, United Way, savings bonds, College Advantage, etc.

Employees must review the information on their pay stubs to ensure accurate payment, deductions, and balances and immediately report any inaccuracies to their payroll officer. The name printed on the pay stub must reflect the name on the employee's social security card.

Change of Employee Information

BCC 11-679

Employees must notify their Supervisors and/or payroll officer of any change in their personal information within seven (7) days of any relevant changes including name, address, telephone number, emergency contact, marital status, beneficiary designations, addition or deletion of dependents for tax purposes, change in school tax district, or any other information that may affect employment records.

Changes to bank account information must be reported to your payroll officer by 10:00 a.m. on Friday a full week before the pay date. In the case of a holiday falling in the payroll week, changes need to be submitted by 10:00 a.m. on Thursday the week before the pay date. When bank account changes are made, the first payment on the new account will be by check.

Payment For Sick Leave Upon Retirement or Death

ORC 124.39
BCC 4/14/80
BCC 95-2540 12/14/95
AG 86-027
BCC 00-1828 8/31/00 Rev. 07-2041

Upon an OPERS retirement from active service, employees with 10 or more years of service with the State or any of its political subdivisions may elect to receive cash payment for their accumulated unused sick leave under the payment schedule outlined in the ORC Statutory Method or the Wood County Method below. "Retirement" means disability or service retirement under OPERS.

Under either method, sick leave payment is based on the employee's rate of pay at the time of retirement. Payment eliminates all accumulated and unused sick leave accrued by the employee and is made only once to any employee.

In the case of a death of an employee who is eligible for retirement, Wood County will pay this benefit to the employee's estate.

Statutory Method

ORC 124.39 allows employees with a minimum of 10 years of OPERS service to receive 25% of the accumulated sick leave, not to exceed 30 days or 240 hours upon an OPERS retirement.

Wood County Method

Only Wood County service time is considered when determining years of service for payment of sick leave accrual. Under this method sick leave shall be paid as follows:

Years of Wood County Service	Percentage	Maximum Hours
10	25	240
15	30	288
20	35	336
25	40	384
30	50	480

ABSENCES FROM WORK

Wood County offers several types of leave for employees; however, employees may only use leave as prescribed in this handbook. Other sections of this handbook offer additional information on absences from work (i.e., vacation, comp time, etc.).

Sick leave, vacation leave, compensatory time and personal leave is not available for use until it appears on the employee's earnings statement and the compensation described in the earnings statement is available to the employee unless warranted due to special circumstances.

Sick Leave

ORC 124.38
OAC 123:1-32-04; 123:1-32-05, 123:1-32-10, 123:1-47-01
Rev. 04-2361 Rev. 07-2041 Rev. 08-2184 Rev. 11-679

All County employees (full time, part time, and intermittent) earn sick leave at the rate of 4.6 hours for each 80 hours worked or .0575 per hour. Sick leave benefits accrue to employees without limit and are charged in minimum units of one-quarter hours (.25 hours).

When calculating sick leave accrual, "time worked" is defined as "all hours in an active pay status including, hours actually worked and all paid time on vacation, sick leave, compensatory time, and holidays." Sick leave is not earned during periods of unpaid leave of absence or layoff.

Reasons for Leave

Employees may use sick leave benefits, provided a credit balance is available, only for the purposes outlined below.

1. Illness, injury, or pregnancy-related condition of the employee.
2. Exposure of an employee to a contagious disease which could be communicated to and jeopardize the health of other employees
3. Examination of the employee, including medical, psychological, dental, or optical examination, by an appropriate licensed practitioner.
4. Death of a member of the employee's immediate family. Such usage shall be limited to a reasonably necessary time, not to exceed five days.

5. Illness, injury, or pregnancy-related condition of a member of the employee's immediate family where the employee's presence is reasonably necessary for the health and welfare of the employee or affected family member.
6. Examination, including medical, psychological, dental, or optical examination, of a member of the employee's immediate family by an appropriate licensed practitioner where the employee's presence is reasonably necessary.
7. Postnatal care of the employee's spouse or newborn child not to exceed five days. Additional time may be granted with doctor's certification for medical related conditions.

As used above, immediate family means an employee's spouse or significant other ("significant other" as used in this definition means one who stands in place of a spouse and who resides with the employee), parents, children, grandparents, siblings, grandchildren, brother-in-law, sister-in-law, daughter-in-law, son-in-law, mother-in-law, father-in-law, step-parents, step-children, step-siblings, or a legal guardian or other person who stands in the place of a parent (in loco parentis).

Use of Sick Leave

The use of sick leave requires approval from the Immediate Supervisor, Department Head, and/or Appointing Authority. To justify the use of sick leave, employees must provide their employer with the specific nature of the illness/injury, the name and relationship to the employee of the injured or ill person, and the length of leave requested.

An employee must use Family Medical Leave and/or Workers' Compensation concurrently if the employee is eligible under these other policies.

Employees unable to work after all sick, vacation, and all other available leave is exhausted may request a leave of absence from their Appointing Authority.

Employees receive paid sick leave for the regular, non-overtime, hours for which they are scheduled to work. Sick leave must not exceed the time the employee was scheduled for non-overtime work (i.e., employee scheduled 8 hours regular time and 4 hours overtime receives only 8 hours paid sick leave for regular hours).

If an employee's sick leave balance is exhausted before an employee can return to work, then the employee will be charged for any accrued vacation leave or other available paid leave. Once all paid leave is exhausted, the employee may request a leave of absence for up to six months. If the employee is unable to return to work at the end of that period, then the employee may, if otherwise qualified, be placed on Disability Separation. (See Section I – Employment for information on Disability Separation.)

Immediate Leave Requests

Employees who are unable to report for work, and who are not on a previously approved day of vacation, sick leave, compensatory time, leave of absence, or other approved leave must notify their Immediate Supervisor or his designee.

The Employee must notify the Supervisor or his designee within one-half hour after the time the employee is scheduled to report for work, unless emergency conditions prevent such notification. For offices and departments in which replacement personnel must be called, employees shall call at least two hours before their scheduled start time.

This verbal notification must include the specific nature of the illness/injury, the name and relationship to the employee of the injured or ill person, and the length of leave requested. If the leave is expected to continue for more than one day, employees shall contact their Immediate Supervisor or Department Head to discuss reporting requirements and leave options including FMLA, if applicable.

On the first day back from leave, employees must complete a Request for Leave form to document the use of sick leave and provide any other forms required by the employer.

Scheduled Leave Requests

Employees with knowledge of the need for sick leave (e.g., scheduled surgery, regular doctor appointment, etc.) must complete a Request for Leave form obtaining prior approval before taking leave. Sick leave for doctor appointments shall be limited to a reasonable amount of time to cover the length of the appointment and necessary travel time.

Employees should schedule medical leave so as to not unduly interrupt employer operations, when possible.

In the case of a condition exceeding seven consecutive calendar days, a physician's statement specifying the employee's inability to report to work and the probable date of recovery shall be submitted to the immediate Supervisor or Department Head prior to taking the leave.

Documenting Leave

All leave must be documented on a Request for Leave form. If medical attention is required, a certificate stating the nature of the illness from a licensed physician may be required to justify the use of sick leave.

Failure to submit required forms by the department's specified timeframe may result in denial of paid sick leave.

Employees may, upon return to health, return to active pay status at the same or similar position upon examination and certification by a physician stating that the employee is able to perform the duties of the position. The County reserves the right to send the employee to a physician of the County's choice and at the County's expense to verify the employee's inability to return to work.

Wood County may require medical verification for questionable use of sick leave, including, but not limited to, use that is excessive or patterned, frequent one day use, etc.

Disciplinary Action

Failure to comply with this policy, falsification of a signed statement or a physician's certificate, requesting leave with the intent to defraud, or general misuse of sick leave shall be grounds for disciplinary action, including dismissal.

Transfer and Reinstatement of Sick Leave

An employee who transfers from employment with or has prior service with any political subdivision of the State of Ohio, or who is reinstated or re-employed, within 10 years shall be credited with the unused sick leave balance, upon written verification from the previous employer. It is the employee's responsibility to obtain verification. Employees who received a sick leave payment upon retirement shall not receive credit for any previous balance.

Family and Medical Leave

Family and Medical Leave Act of 1993; 29 CFR Part 825

BCC 93-1813 Rev. 95-1263 Rev. 00-1828 Rev. 04-2361 Rev. 07-2041 Rev. 09-648 Rev. 11-679

The Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA) grants an eligible employee continuous or intermittent leave during a calendar year, January 1 through December 31, for certain qualifying events. Basic and Military Qualifying Exigency Leave provide up to a total of 12 weeks of leave (480 hours for a full time employee) during a single 12 month period. The 12 weeks of leave for part time employees is based on their regular schedule. Military Caregiver Leave provides up to a total of 26 work weeks (1,040 hours) of leave during a 12 month period. No employee receives more than a total of 26 weeks in a calendar year.

The Family and Medical Leave Act guarantees that an employee who takes FMLA leave can return to either the position held before the leave or a similar position upon return from leave, unless the employee would have been terminated in the absence of FMLA leave due to layoff, job abolishment, or insufficient funds. FMLA also guarantees the same benefits or conditions of employment accrued prior to the beginning of the leave period.

All available leave and benefits, e.g., sick, vacation, personal leave, comp time, Workers' Compensation (non-transitional duty), etc., run concurrently with designated FMLA leave and must be exhausted prior to commencement of an unpaid FMLA leave. Employee sick leave benefits provided by the Ohio Revised Code generally meet or exceed benefits provided under FMLA.

Three Types of FMLA Leave

Basic FMLA Leave

1. Incapacity due to pregnancy, prenatal medical care, or child birth.
2. Caring for the employee's child after birth or placement for adoption or foster care. FMLA leave must be completed within 12 months of the date of birth/placement. (An employee cannot take 12 weeks parental leave and an additional 12 weeks of other FMLA leave.)
3. Caring for the employee's spouse, son or daughter, or parent, who has a serious health condition; or
4. An employee's serious health condition that makes the employee unable to perform the duties of his/her position

Military Qualifying Exigency Leave

Eligible employees with a spouse, son, daughter, or parent on active duty or called to active duty status in the National Guard or Reserves in support of a contingency operation may use up to 12 weeks leave for certain qualifying exigencies.

Military Caregiver Leave

An eligible employee who is the spouse, son, daughter, parent, or next of kin of a covered service member shall be entitled to a total of 26 work weeks of leave during a 12-month period to care for a covered service member. During the single 12-month period, an eligible employee shall be entitled to a combined total of 26 work weeks of leave under Qualifying Exigency Leave and Military Caregiver Leave entitlements.

Employee Eligibility

Employees are eligible if they meet both of the following criteria:

1. Employed by Wood County for at least 12 months or 52 weeks; and
2. Worked at least 1,250 hours, including overtime but excluding paid vacation leave, paid sick leave, paid holidays, unpaid leave and layoffs, during the past 12 months.

Requests for FMLA Leave

If the need for leave is foreseeable (e.g., scheduled surgery, birth), employees must communicate sufficient information about the reason for leave to the Supervisor by completing a written Request for Leave at least 30 days prior to taking leave.

If the need for FMLA leave is unforeseeable (e.g., car accident), employees must comply with the normal call-in procedure and communicate sufficient information about the reason for leave. A written Request for Leave must be submitted as soon as practicable.

The decision to designate leave as FMLA-qualifying must be based only on information received from the employee or the employee's spokesperson (e.g. if the employee is incapacitated, the employee's spouse, adult child, parent, doctor, etc. may provide notice to the employer of the need to take FMLA leave). If the Supervisor does not have sufficient information, the Supervisor should inquire further of the employee or the spokesperson to ascertain whether the leave is potentially FMLA-qualifying.

When determining paid FMLA leave, employees shall refer to the Employee Handbook to verify if the payment for leave requested (e.g., sick, vacation, etc.) meets the statutory definition. For example, adoption and qualifying exigency do not meet the statutory or handbook purposes for sick leave use. Vacation or other types of leave may be used.

Even if not specifically requested as FMLA leave by the employee, the supervisor shall initiate the FMLA process for any qualifying health condition or event.

First Notice: Eligibility

The Supervisor must notify employees, in person or by mail, of their eligibility status within five business days after:

1. the first time an employee requests leave for a particular qualifying reason in the calendar year; or
2. the Supervisor receives knowledge that the reason for an employee's leave may be FMLA qualifying.

This notice only indicates employee eligibility, not whether the facts qualify for FMLA. See form: FMLA First Notice: Notice of Eligibility and Rights & Responsibilities.

Certification

The Department Head or Supervisor may require employees to submit a complete and sufficient certification on one of the following forms as appropriate for the request:

1. Certification of Health Care Provider for Employee's Serious Health Condition
2. Certification of Health Care Provider for Family Member's Serious Health Condition
3. Certification of Qualifying Exigency for Military Family Leave
4. Certification for Serious Injury or Illness of Covered Service Member for Military Family Leave
5. Equivalent documentation in the case of an adoption/foster care.

The employee must return the completed certification within the timeframe noted on the Notice of Eligibility and Rights and Responsibilities form, or the leave may be denied and the employee may be subject to disciplinary action (e.g. insubordination).

Where the employee's need for leave due to the employee's own serious health condition, or the serious health condition of the employee's covered family member lasts beyond a single leave year, the County may require the employee to provide a new medical certification in each subsequent leave year.

Second and Third Certification Opinions

The County may require that the employee get a second opinion from an independent medical provider, selected and paid for by the county. If the two opinions conflict, the conflict may be resolved by a third opinion by a provider agreed to by the County and the employee which shall be considered final and binding. The County will pay for this opinion.

The County may not require a second and third opinion for:

1. Employer's request for recertification. See below.
2. Leave taken because of a Military Qualifying Exigency.
3. Leave taken to care for a Covered Military Service Member.

Recertification

The County may require recertification of an employee or family member's serious health condition at any time at the employee's expense if:

1. The employee requests an extension of leave (e.g. 2 weeks to 3 weeks);
2. Circumstances described by the previous certification have changed significantly (e.g. the duration of the illness, the nature of the illness, complications); or
3. Leave taken by the employee is inconsistent with the circumstances described in the employee's certification (e.g. facts about employee's activities during the leave suggest FMLA qualifying serious health condition no longer exists).

If the medical certification indicates that the minimum duration of the condition is more than 30 days, the County must wait the minimum duration before requesting a recertification.

In all cases, the County may request a recertification of a medical condition every six months in connection with an absence by the employee (e.g. course of treatment/intermittent FMLA extending more than six months).

Second Notice: FMLA Designation

One notice of designation is required for each FMLA-qualifying reason per calendar year (e.g. separate notices of designation for broken leg in March and heart attack in November.)

Within five business days after the Department Head or Supervisor receives enough information to determine whether the leave taken is for a FMLA-qualifying reason

(e.g. after receipt of a complete and sufficient certification), the Department Head or Supervisor must provide notice to the employee, in person or by mail, if the leave requested is or is not a FMLA-qualified leave. See form: FMLA Second Notice: Designation Notice.

This notice must include the amount of leave counted against the employee's FMLA entitlement. If the amount of leave needed is not known, then the Department Head or Supervisor must provide notice of the amount of leave counted against the employee's FMLA leave entitlement upon the request of the employee, but no more often than once in a 30-day period and only if leave was taken that period.

Use of FMLA Leave

Intermittent Leave

In certain cases, FMLA leave may be taken on an intermittent basis rather than all at once, or the employee may request to work a part-time schedule. In reviewing an employee's request for intermittent leave, the Elected Official or Department Head shall determine whether or not an acceptable leave schedule can be arranged and may consider a temporary transfer to an alternative or comparable position.

If medically possible, an employee must schedule intermittent leave so as to not unduly interrupt employer operations. For employees taking intermittent leave, the employer must account for the reduced schedule using increments of time as outlined in the Employee Handbook, as required by a collective bargaining agreement, or as set by an appointing authority.

Holidays

Holidays that occur during a full week of FMLA leave are considered FMLA leave. However, if an employee is using FMLA leave in increments of less than one week, the holiday will not count as FMLA leave unless the employee was otherwise scheduled and is expected to work during the holiday.

Coordination of Leave for Spouses Working for Wood County

A husband and wife who both work for Wood County and are eligible for FMLA leave are limited to a combined 12 work weeks of leave for birth, adoption, or foster care placement. Other FMLA taken will be calculated in the same manner as leave for an individual employee.

Interaction with Other Leave Programs

Additional time off beyond the required FMLA leave may be available to employees as defined in the Employee Handbook (e.g. sick leave and/or leave of absence without pay).

Reporting Requirements

Employees on FMLA leave are required to report to their immediate supervisor on their status and intent to return as noted on the FMLA First Notice: Notice of Eligibility and Rights & Responsibilities.

Recordkeeping

Records and documents relating to certifications or medical histories created for purposes of FMLA shall be maintained as confidential medical records in separate files from the usual personnel files.

All records relating to FMLA shall be maintained for a minimum of three years.

Department Heads or their designees shall maintain records of leave balances and FMLA leave usage.

Employee Benefits

Health Benefits

During the FMLA leave, paid or unpaid, the County will maintain the employee's coverage for health insurance benefits as defined in the Plan Document.

Employee Payment of Health Benefit Copays

If the employee is on FMLA leave and receives wages for both monthly pay periods, the County will deduct his/her portion of the premium(s) normally deducted from the individual's pay check.

If both pay periods do not provide sufficient funds to withdraw the employee's portion of the premium(s) normally deducted via payroll, the employee must pay the entire monthly premium.

Employee paid insurance copayments are due by the last day of the month prior to coverage—i.e. February's payment is due by January 31st. Checks should be made payable to the Wood County Treasurer and submitted to the department's insurance group representative.

Insurance Termination Notice

Wood County must give 15 days notice before terminating coverage due to non-payment of premium.

If payment is not received after a 30-day grace period, benefits will terminate retroactively to the first day of the month for which payment of premium due was not received. Forms to terminate coverage must be completed by the employee or the employee's group representative.

All claims paid on a retroactively terminated policy will become the responsibility of the employee.

An employee whose benefits are terminated will no longer be eligible to re-enter the plan during leave.

Vacation and Sick Leave Benefits

An employee does not accrue sick leave or vacation leave benefits during a leave without pay under FMLA.

Reinstatement After FMLA Leave

Employees who take leave due to their own serious health condition must provide a fitness for duty certification from a health care provider that they are able to perform the essential functions of their position prior to returning to work.

Employees electing not to continue health benefits during FMLA leave will have their health benefits reinstated on the first day of the month after return to permanent full time employment. Benefits will be reinstated at the same level in which they were in effect prior to leave. In order to be considered as returning to work, an employee must work for at least 30 calendar days.

All other terms and conditions of employment will be reinstated upon the employee's return to work (e.g., sick leave accruals, health benefits, etc.)

Unavailability of Position

If the same job is not available, the Appointing Authority will determine in which similar position the employee should be placed, and must grant equivalent pay, benefits and conditions of employment.

An employee who returns to permanent full-time work for at least 30 consecutive calendar days is considered to have returned to work.

Non-Returning Employees

Employees who fail to return to work after the FMLA leave without other approved leave are deemed to have voluntarily terminated their employment. Any balances of pay due (vacation, compensatory time, etc.) will be paid on the next pay date after termination.

The employee's insurance benefits, if continued, cease at the end of the month following notification. The Board of County Commissioners will notify employees of their COBRA options upon receipt of termination information from the department's monthly insurance report. The employee must complete a COBRA Personnel Action Report and submit it to his/her group representative in order to initiate COBRA benefits.

The employee must pay the County's share of health insurance premiums paid on the employee's behalf during a period of unpaid FMLA leave if the employee fails to return to work after the employee's FMLA leave ends. The employee does not owe the County's share of the premium if the employee fails to return to work due to some other circumstances beyond the employee's control.

EMPLOYEE BENEFITS

Lunch Period

BCC 8/29/90 Rev. 04-2361 Rev. 07-2041 Rev. 08-2184

Lunch periods are a period of time where the employee is relieved from work duties. The Appointing Authority will determine the length of the lunch period and if it is compensated.

Lunch periods are generally scheduled to begin no earlier than 11 a.m. and end no later than 2 p.m., or as determined by the Appointing Authority. All lunch periods shall be documented on employees' timesheets including start and end times.

Lunch shall not be consumed while working.

Unpaid Lunch Period

Employees working in departments that do not provide a paid lunch period, or part-time employees scheduled for less than eight hours per day, may be provided an unpaid lunch period, the length of which shall be determined by the supervisor (1/2 hour or 1 hour).

Paid Lunch Period

Full-time employees must work at their assigned duties for a minimum of five hours to be eligible to receive a paid lunch period. Five hours worked means actual time worked, exclusive of a lunch period, sick leave, vacation leave, compensatory time or other leave.

Part-time employees scheduled for eight hours per day may be provided a paid lunch period.

Full-time and part-time employees shall return to work following a paid lunch period or the time taken for the lunch period will be charged to available leave or will be considered leave without pay. The lunch period cannot be moved to the end of the employee's work day.

Additional compensation is not provided for employees who work through the paid lunch period.

Holidays

ORC 325.19
OAC 123:1-44-01

Ohio law provides full-time County employees with eight hours of “holiday pay” for the following holidays:

New Year's Day, January 1
Martin Luther King Day, Third Monday in January
Presidents' Day, Third Monday in February
Memorial Day, Last Monday in May
Independence Day, July 4
Labor Day, First Monday in September
Columbus Day, Second Monday in October
Veterans Day, November 11
Thanksgiving Day, Fourth Thursday in November
Christmas Day, December 25

Holidays falling on Sunday are observed on the following Monday. Those falling on Saturday are observed on the preceding Friday.

Full-time employees who work on a recognized holiday receive eight hours of holiday pay in addition to time and one-half their regular rate for actual hours worked on the designated holiday.

Those employees whose schedules are other than Monday through Friday are entitled to holiday pay for holidays observed on their day off.

Employees who observe religious or ethnic holidays other than those specified above must use vacation time, compensatory time, or personal leave.

Employees must be on active pay status the day before a holiday in order to receive holiday pay. If a holiday falls during an employee's scheduled vacation or period of paid absence due to illness or injury (sick leave), the employee will not be charged for vacation or sick leave for that day but will receive holiday pay. Payment will not be made for holidays which occur during an unpaid leave of absence.

Part-time employees are not eligible for holiday pay.

Vacations

ORC 325.19
 ORC 9.44
 Pros. Opinion 2000-13 Rev. 07-2041 Rev. 11-679

All full-time employees are entitled to vacation leave, with pay, after the completion of one full year of service with the county or any other political subdivision of the state. One year of service equals twenty-six biweekly pay periods.

Vacation is based on length of service as illustrated in the Vacation Accrual Table below:

Vacation Accrual Table
Years of Service	Pay Periods	Accrual Rate	Balance Limit
Less than one year	1-26	3.1 hours per payperiod (Accrues on paycheck but is not available for use or payout)
After one year	27-208	3.1 hours per payperiod 80 hours annually (2 weeks)	160 hours
After 8 years	209 - 390	4.6 hours per payperiod 120 hours annually (3 weeks)	240 hours
After 15 years	391- 650	6.2 hours per payperiod 160 hours annually (4 weeks)	320 hours
After 25 years	650 +	7.7 hours per payperiod 200 hours annually (5 weeks)	400 hours

Upon completion of an employee's 8th, 15th or 25th year, the employee receives a credit of one week of vacation (i.e., 40 hours) added to his/her vacation balance.

Employees may not accrue vacation beyond the balance limit in the Vacation Accrual Table.

Employees must take vacation leave during the year in which it accrues and prior to the next recurrence of the anniversary date of the employee's employment, provided the Appointing Authority may, in special meritorious cases, permit employees to accumulate and carry over vacation leave to the following year. However, in no case may vacation leave be carried over for more than three years. Each employee must check with their Appointing Authority as to their vacation carry over policy.

Employees do not earn additional vacation leave for hours in excess of 40 hours per week. However, employees accrue proportionately less vacation leave when on an unpaid leave of absence.

Employees must complete a Request for Leave form when requesting to use vacation time. Such request must have prior approval from the immediate Supervisor, Department Head and/or Appointing Authority. Vacation is charged in minimum units of one-quarter hours (.25 hours) or as designated by the Appointing Authority.

Employees cannot receive vacation pay and regular pay for the same hours. Employees are entitled to compensation for accumulated but unused vacation leave only at the time of separation of service. Payment for accumulated but unused vacation leave at separation is at the employee's current rate of pay. Employees who leave employment prior to the completion of their first year are not entitled to receive compensation for accrued vacation hours.

Except as otherwise provided in this section, a person employed, by the State or any political subdivision of the State, earning vacation credits currently, is entitled to have prior service with any of these employers counted as service with the state or any political subdivision of the State, for purposes of computing the rate of vacation accrual. The employee must provide written proof of prior service calculated on compensated pay periods within 30 days of employment. Upon receipt of prior service verification, Wood County will confirm the rate of vacation accrual. Any employee who retired after June 24, 1987, and took part in any retirement plan offered by the state (i.e., OPERS, STRS, etc.), shall NOT have his/her prior service counted in the event he or she is re-employed by the County or other public employer.

Upon the death of an employee, payment of accumulated unused vacation leave shall be disbursed in accordance with ORC 2113.04 or to the estate of the employee. If the amount exceeds $2,500, the payment must be made to the estate and is subject to the normal probate process.

Ohio Public Employees Retirement System

ORC 145

All County employees are required to become members of the Ohio Public Employees Retirement System (OPERS).

Contributions to OPERS may affect possible Social Security benefits, resulting in the Social Security Windfall Elimination Provision or the Government Pension Offset reducing federal benefits. Information regarding the Windfall and Offset provisions are available from the Social Security Administration, www.socialsecurity.gov or toll-free at 1-800-722-1213.

Employees hired after January 1, 2003, may select from one of three retirement plan options within 180 days of their initial employment. (Employees hired prior to January 1, 2003, are automatically in the Traditional Pension Plan.)

Traditional Pension Plan: A defined benefit plan – retirement benefit is determined by a formula (based on years of service and highest years of salary).

Member Directed Plan: A defined contribution plan – retirement benefit is determined by employee and employer contributions and gains/losses of investment options.

Combined Plan: A defined benefit and defined contribution plan – retirement benefit is determined by reduced formula (for defined benefit component) and gains/losses or investment options (for defined contribution plan).

OPERS is funded by employee and employer contributions. The employee contribution is made through payroll deduction based on gross earnings. Contact your payroll officer for current deduction rates.

OPERS sends all employees an enrollment card and informational brochure to explain their benefits. Annual statements and publications are mailed by OPERS directly to members.

Additional retirement information can be obtained by writing to the Ohio Public Employees Retirement System, 227 East Town Street, Columbus, Ohio 43215; or by visiting their web site at www.opers.org; or calling toll free 1-800-222-PERS, or 614-466-2085.

Deferred Compensation Programs

BCC 4/4/77
BCC 4/14/87

Employees may participate in two deferred compensation programs: the County Commissioners Association of Ohio (CCAO) Deferred Compensation Program and/or the Public Employees Deferred Compensation Program. All contributions are made through payroll deductions.

The programs require employees who separate from Wood County employment to contact the appropriate representative to select a payment schedule of contributions.

Health Insurance and Wellness Benefits

ORC 305.171

The Board of County Commissioners offers health benefits through the Wood County Employee Health Benefits Plan and serves as the trustees of this self-insured plan. All full-time permanent employees are eligible for enrollment in the Wood County Employees Health Benefits program. Coverage includes medical, prescription, vision services plan, dental, and life insurance.

Employees must be on permanent full-time status for 30 days prior to enrollment. Enrollment occurs the first day of the next month following the completion of the 30 day period. To enroll, employees must complete an application for the type and level of coverage requested and complete a confidential wellness screening. Refer to the Plan Document for information on dependent eligibility and other benefit information.

Within 30 days of enrollment, employees receive the carriers' identification cards and Summary Plan Description.

Employees with previous "credible" health insurance coverage may be partially or fully exempt from the County's preexisting condition clause. The employee must provide written verification of such credible coverage at the time of application.

Employees seeking to change their insurance coverage must make application within 30 days or as outlined in the Plan Document. The annual Open Election period is November 15 through December 15 with changes effective on January 1 of the following year.

The County also provides a variety of wellness programs to eligible employees. Refer to the Summary Plan Description for a complete listing of available programs.

In the event of termination of benefits, the employee's insurance coverage will cease the end of the month in which an employee leaves active pay status.

Under Public Law 99-272 Title X, commonly referred to as COBRA, separating employees may be eligible to continue coverage at their own expense. Employees are notified of their COBRA rights upon enrollment in the health benefits program. When coverage terminates, employees must complete a COBRA personnel action report to determine COBRA eligibility. Written communication regarding COBRA offerings shall be mailed to the affected employee and/or spouse and dependents.

Employees should refer to the Plan Document for additional information, or visit the employee website at www.co.wood.oh.us/employee.

Optional Insurance Program

Other optional insurance programs are offered to employees, but the entire premium is paid by the employee. Group rates are provided. Contact your department's insurance representative or the Commissioners' Office for more information.

Representatives make annual visits to County offices to advise new employees of program options and update active accounts.

Employees who separate from Wood County employment should notify the appropriate insurance representative of their employment status.

Employee Assistance Program

Personal problems may affect not only an individual's health, family and job security, but also co-workers and job performance. Therefore, the Employee Assistance Program has been developed to assist employees with such problems.

The Wood County Employee Assistance Program (EAP) offers confidential assistance to Wood County employees and their families through four types of referrals: self, family member, supervisory and peer.

This no cost program can be accessed by calling the 24-hour EAP Crisis Intervention Hot-Line at 1.800.513.6733.

The EAP offers 24-hour emergency intervention and counseling, initial assessment, and up to five sessions with a professional counselor, job site intervention, and critical incident debriefing.

Workers' Compensation

ORC Chapter 4123
Rev. 11-679

Wood County employees are covered by the Ohio Workers' Compensation plan administered by the Bureau of Workers' Compensation (BWC). The Commissioners' Office holds the policy with the BWC and coordinates the administration of Workers' Compensation claims.

Some claims may be medically managed by a Managed Care Organization (MCO). Employees who experience work-related injuries may be eligible for the following benefits:

- Payment of medical care including prescriptions, (at the level provided by law) provided by a clinic, physician, hospital or medical services, for the work-related injury or condition as approved by the County, BWC, Industrial Commission of Ohio, or MCO.
- Payment of compensation (at the level prescribed by law) for disability after seven or more calendar days away from work.
- Death benefits payable to the beneficiaries of any employee whose death is a direct result of a work-related accident or illness.

Employee Responsibilities

All accidents and injuries shall be reported immediately to the employee's Supervisor or prior to the end of the employee's work shift. An Accident Injury Investigation Report must be completed even if a Workers' Compensation claim is not filed.

Employees shall complete all pertinent Workers' Compensation and/or accident report forms and submit to their supervisor. Refer to the Workers' Compensation Packet, available on the Wood County employee website, for employee and provider instructions and appropriate forms. A delay in providing required information may result in a delay of processing the claim and disciplinary action. All claims for Workers' Compensation benefits must be filed within two years of the date of injury.

If medical attention is required, employees should seek professional care from Wood County's approved occupational medicine facility or a BWC participating provider. (A non-certified provider will be reimbursed only in an emergency or for initial treatment.) Employees must submit a proof of purchase to the Commissioners' Office to receive reimbursement for prescription drugs to treat a work-related injury or illness. Some prescriptions may require prior authorization. Submission for payment of medical bills associated with a Workers' Compensation claim is the responsibility of the injured worker.

Employees must notify all service providers of the employer billing instructions and claim number when assigned.

Immediately following treatment, employees must provide written documentation from the treating physician including the employee's name, dates of leave, return to work date and any physical restrictions to their supervisor. If the employee needs additional injury-related leave, the employee must submit medical documentation from the treating physician to substantiate the additional leave upon receipt or prior to the expiration date of the previously approved return to work date, whichever is earlier.

Supervisor Responsibilities

Supervisors must notify the Commissioners' Office immediately following an employee workplace accident or injury and submit original paperwork to the Commissioners' Office within 24 hours of receipt.

Supervisors shall thoroughly investigate the accident/injury, take corrective action, and document the removal of any dangerous condition in the workplace.

Claim Procedures

The County or Medical Provider shall submit the claim to the BWC. The BWC will assign a claim number and forward notification and claim information to the employee's home address. The assignment of a claim number by the BWC is only an acknowledgement of the claim.

Providers shall bill Wood County for services unless directed by the Commissioners' Office to bill the MCO. Medical bills are paid using the usual, customary, and reasonable fee for each type of service.

Alcohol/Drug Related Injuries

All Wood County workplaces shall post written notice to employees that the results of or a refusal to submit to a chemical test for alcohol and/or drugs as described in ORC 4123.54 may affect the employee's eligibility for compensation and benefits under Ohio's Worker Compensation Law Chapter 4123 of the Revised Code.

The employee must submit to an alcohol and/or drug test if the employer has a reasonable cause to suspect use or if the test is requested by a police officer or licensed physician.

An employee who tests positive or refuses to submit to chemical testing may be disqualified for compensation and benefits under the Workers' Compensation Act.

Positive alcohol and/or drug testing, or an employee's refusal to test under the circumstances outlined in ORC 4123.54, creates a rebuttable presumption that the proximate cause of the employee's injury was alcohol or a controlled substance not prescribed by the employee's physician. The employee may dispute or prove the presumption untrue by producing sufficient credible evidence to the BWC.

Coordination with Other Policies

Insurance Benefits: Insurance benefits for injured workers will continue for up to 60 days after the last day the employee was actively at work. The employee must pay any co-payments required by the plan.

FMLA: Employees on a Workers' Compensation claim may qualify for benefits under the Family Medical Leave Act (FMLA). Workers' Compensation and FMLA benefits commence on the same date.

Transitional Duty: Wood County seeks to return all injured workers to their original position immediately after a work related injury. Some injured employees may return to gainful employment in a temporary "bridge" assignment within the limitations of the injury. See the Transitional Duty Policy & Procedures for additional information.

Transitional Work Program Policy and Procedures

BCC 99-1318 6/22/99 Rev. 04-2361

I. Purpose: It is in the employee's physical and psychological best interests to remain active and productive within the limitations of a work related injury or illness. The Wood County Transitional Work Program (TWP) returns an employee with a work-related injury or illness to active employment through a temporary employment ("bridge") assignment. The temporary work assignment accommodates the limitations of the injury until the employee can return to full duty without restrictions or reaches maximum medical improvement.

A. The benefits of Wood County's TWP are as follows:

1. The Employee provides a valued service without the stress of losing income or regular work contacts.
2. The County reduces Workers' Compensation related expenses by promoting positive work relationships and by maintaining an experienced work force.
3. The participating Physician(s) work within the framework of a transitional work program to make an informed decision about the type of work an employee can best handle within his/her physical capabilities.

II. Eligibility

- A. All employees on leave from work due to a work-related injury or illness are eligible for participation in the program pending a medical evaluation. An employee may participate in the TWP program for three months, with one three month extension following a review by the TWP participating physician, the Appointing Authority, and/or the Board of County Commissioners.
- B. Drug and/or alcohol tests will be performed upon reasonable suspicion that drug and/or alcohol use was the cause of, or contributed to the work-related injury or illness. Employees testing positive may not be eligible for the program.

III. Procedures

- A. After a work-related injury/illness, the employee shall notify his/her supervisor who will immediately contact the Risk Coordinator in the Commissioners' Office to schedule an appointment with the designated Workers' Compensation Physician.

- B. If the employee is physically able to perform the responsibilities of his/her original classification with slight modification provided by the physician, he/she may be returned to that classification upon approval for accommodation by the Appointing Authority.
- C. If the employee is unable to return to his/her original classification, the physician will refer to the TWP manual to determine which bridge assignment within Wood County the employee can perform considering his/her injury. The physician will notify the Risk Coordinator within 24 hours of the compatible assignments approved for the injured worker.
- D. In consultation with the appropriate official/supervisor, the Risk Coordinator will assign the injured employee to a temporary work assignment (bridge assignment). If more than one (1) bridge assignment is necessary to accommodate the employee's needs, placement within the office/department where the injury occurred will be given priority. If a medically compatible assignment is not available within the employee's office/department, a temporary placement within another county office/department may be arranged. The assignment will be based upon:
 - 1. The availability of work.
 - 2. Physician approval.
 - 3. Estimated length of the employee's recovery period.
 - 4. The employee's physical needs/condition.
 - 5. Approval of the Appointing Authority and/or the Board of County Commissioners.
- E. If the injured worker seeks initial treatment from his/her own physician, the Risk Coordinator will schedule an appointment for the injured worker with the County's designated Workers' Compensation Physician. In the event the two physicians reach different conclusions, the Risk Coordinator will contact the physicians in an effort to determine the most appropriate action.
- F. Once a "bridge" assignment is approved by the physician and the Appointing Authority, the Risk Coordinator will notify the employee of the bridge assignment. Failure to accept the assignment or respond to the employer will be treated as a refusal to work and Wood County will seek to terminate any compensation being awarded by the BWC.
- G. The employee must sign and return the Transitional Work Agreement prior to performing any duties. The Transitional Work Agreement between the employee and his/her Appointing Authority will include the following elements:

1. A specific start and stop date for the program. In no case will a contract be extended past six (6) months.
 2. Work schedule.
 3. Description of the “bridge” assignment work duties.
- H. The employee will begin work on the next scheduled working day unless otherwise instructed by the physician. The supervisor and the Risk Coordinator will explain the Transitional Work Program policy and procedures and the duties of the assignment, including a written description, oral instructions, photographs, and, if necessary, video tapes.
- I. At the intervals set for each bridge assignment, the employee must see the County’s Workers’ Compensation Physician for reevaluation of assignments on the Bridge Assignment Matrix. The employee’s progress toward his/her original classification must meet the needs of the employee, the Appointing Authority, and temporary assignment availability.
- J. With each new assignment, the employee will meet with the Risk Coordinator to review changing responsibilities and expectations. Any change of assignments, work hours, etc., must be noted on the Transitional Work Agreement and signed by the appropriate parties prior to duties being performed.
- K. Only the physician can approve a change in “bridge” assignment for the injured worker. Any changes in the employee’s medical status must be reported to his/her supervisor and the Risk Coordinator.
- L. All records regarding the employee’s transitional work assignment(s) will be maintained by the Appointing Authority or Department Head and incorporated into the employee’s personnel file.
- M. If at any time the Workers’ Compensation Physician determines that an employee will never be able to return to his/her regular duties, an assessment of his/her employment status will be made after a complete review of the case and consideration of a formal vocational rehabilitation plan.

IV. Compensation

- A. Employees in the program receive their current rate of compensation and schedule of benefits from their county office/department while recovering from their work-related injury/illness.

V. Benefits During Program

- A. Coordination of health insurance benefits will follow all regular Workers' Compensation procedures.
- B. The employee must take Family Medical Leave, if available.

Savings Bonds

Employees may purchase savings bonds through payroll deductions. Contact your payroll officer or the Auditor's Office for more information and required forms.

College Advantage

Employees may elect to enroll in this program to set money aside for their children's college education through payroll deductions. Contact your payroll officer or the Auditor's Office for more information and required forms.

Employee Recognition Program

The Employee Recognition Program is designed to recognize employees for their service to Wood County. Employees with five, 10, 15, 20, 25, 30, and 35 years of Wood County service are recognized during the program. The program is traditionally held in January for service completed in the previous year.

Public Records Policy

ORC 149
BCC 07-2041
BCC 11-679

I. Purpose

- A. This Public Records Policy is adopted by Wood County to ensure that Ohio's citizens are entitled to access the records of their government. This policy shall be interpreted liberally in favor of disclosure and exemptions shall be narrowly construed.
- B. The Public Records Act imposes two primary obligations upon public offices, two corresponding rights upon the public:
 1. Prompt inspection of public records; and
 2. Copies of public records within a reasonable period of time

II. Public Records

- A. Under Ohio law, a public office may only create records that are "necessary for the adequate and proper documentation of the organization, function, policies, decisions, procedures and essential transactions of the agency and for the protection of the legal and financial rights of the state and persons directly affected by the agency's activities."
- B. "Record" is defined as any item kept by a public office that meets all of the following:
 1. Is stored on a fixed medium, (such as paper, electronic – including but not limited to e-mail, and other formats);
 2. Is created or received by, or sent under the jurisdiction of a public office;
 3. Documents the organization, functions, policies, decisions, procedures, operations, or other activities of the office.
- C. If any of these three requirements is absent, the item is not a record and therefore not a public record.
- D. A public office is not required to create new records to respond to a public records request, even if it is only a matter of compiling information from existing records.

III. Exemptions to Public Records Law

- A. The confidential nature of certain types of information or records precludes their release. Federal and state law provides numerous exceptions to the general rule that disclosure of public records is mandatory.
- B. Records whose release is found to be prohibited by state or federal law, or not considered public records as defined by ORC 149.43(A)(1), are not subject to public inspection.
 - 1. Appendix A contains a list of records that may not be subject to release per ORC 149.43(A)(1), Appendix B is a non-exhaustive list of express exemptions found throughout the Ohio Revised Code, and Appendix C is Attorney General Opinions interpreting Ohio's Public Records Act. (Please note that the appendices are accurate as of the revision date of this policy; refer to the Ohio Revised Code and the Attorney General's Office for updates.)
 - 2. A copy of Appendix A, B and C of the Public Records Policy is available from this office upon request at no charge or on the County website at www.co.wood.oh.us.

IV. Public Records Requests

- A. All public records maintained by the office shall be promptly prepared and made available for inspection to any person during regular business hours. The office also shall make a copy of the current record retention schedule of the public office.
- B. Identification of Public Record. The requester must identify the records requested with sufficient clarity to allow the public office to identify, retrieve, and review the records. If a requester makes an ambiguous or overly broad request so that the exact public records cannot be reasonably identified, the request may be denied. If denied, the office will provide the requester with an opportunity to revise the request by informing the requester of the manner in which records are maintained and accessed in the ordinary course of business.
- C. Format of Request. The request may be oral or in writing based on the requester's choice. The office may seek a written request of the requester's identity and intended use if the facts demonstrate it would enhance the ability to identify, locate, or deliver the public records sought by the requester but only after the office provides information to the requester on the following:
 - 1. Disclose that a written request is not mandatory;

2. Disclose that the requester may decline to reveal their identity or intended use;
- D. Choice of Medium. The requester may choose to have the record duplicated:
1. On paper,
 2. In the same form as the public office keeps it (e.g., on computer disk), or
 3. On any medium upon which the public office determines the record can “reasonably be duplicated as an integral part of normal operations of the public office.”
- E. Response Time to Request. Public records shall be made promptly available for inspection during regular business hours. The office will provide copies if requested within a reasonable period of time based upon
- a. The circumstances of the public office at the time of the request;
 - b. The breadth of the request;
 - c. The necessity of legal evaluation prior to release
- F. Prohibition Against Requesters Right to Make Copies Themselves. To protect the integrity of the original document, a person requesting the copies of public records shall not make their own copies of the requested records by any means.
1. A representative of the public office shall be present when a public record is being reviewed.
- G. Limit to Number of Requests by Mail. The office may limit the number of record requests by a person to be transmitted by the United States mail to 10 per month, unless the person certified in writing of their intent not to use or forward the requested records or the information contained in them, for commercial purposes. “Commercial” shall be narrowly construed and does not include reporting or gathering news, reporting or gathering information to assist citizen oversight or understanding of the operation or activities of government, or nonprofit education research.
- H. Requests by Incarcerated Persons. An incarcerated person may receive public records, but only if the records concern a criminal investigation and the request meets the following:
1. The record must be “public records” which are not subject to an exemption from disclosure;

2. The judge who imposed the sentence of incarceration, or that judge's successor, finds the information sought in the public record is necessary to support a justifiable claim of the person.

V. Denial of Public Record Requests

- A. If a request is denied, in part or in whole, the public office shall provide the requester with a written explanation, including legal authority, setting forth why the request was denied.
- B. Denial of an Ambiguous or Overly Broad Request of Public Record. A request may be denied if it is ambiguous or overly broad. Prior to denying a request, the office will inform the requester of the manner in which records are maintained in the ordinary course of business and provide an opportunity to revise the request.
- C. Denial of a Public Record Not Maintained by Wood County. If the public office receives a request for a record that it does not maintain or the record is no longer maintained, it shall notify the requester in writing utilizing Form PR-1 that one of the following applies:
 1. The records have never been maintained by this office and if possible direct the requester to the proper office;
 2. The records are no longer maintained or have been disposed or transferred pursuant to applicable Records Retention Schedule (RC-2);
 3. The record has been disposed of pursuant to a One-Time Records Disposal of Obsolete Records (RC-1);
 4. The record is not a record used or maintained by the public office, and there is no obligation to create records to meet public record requests.
- D. Denial of a Public Record Maintained by Wood County. The public office may deny a records request if the release is prohibited by state or federal law.
 1. If the record request is denied in its entirety because of a statutory exclusion this office may check the appropriate box on Form PR-1.
 2. If only part of the record is not subject to release, this office will
 - a. Redact, i.e. black-out or otherwise remove, such information and release the non-exempted information;
 - b. Check the appropriate box on Form PR-1 and cite the exemption under the Ohio Revised Code, applicable rulings of the Court, or State Attorney General Opinions with the corresponding redaction.

- c. Requests that include redactions shall be made on a copy of the original record to preserve the authenticity and accuracy of the original document.
 3. The office shall consult the Prosecutor if unsure of whether or not a part of the record requested is exempt from disclosure.
 4. The public office may rely on additional reasons or legal authority in defending an action commenced pursuant to ORC 149.43.
- E. Request for Personnel Records. Strictly personal information unrelated to the employee's performance of public business such as Social Security number, home address, home phone number, information regarding spouse and children's names and ages, medical records, payroll deductions, or additional voluntary retirement contributions, should be redacted prior to viewing by anyone other than the employee or their written designee.

VI. Costs for Public Records

- A. A requester must pay for the actual cost of reproduction which does not include employee time. If the nature of the request reasonably requires a copy by an outside contractor, the requester must pay said cost to this office to produce the copy.
- B. Payment in Advance. The public office may require a requester to pay in advance the cost to provide the copy of the public record, as requested.
 1. Photocopies of letter or legal sized documents are five cents ($.05) per page/photocopy, unless legally permitted otherwise and posted.
 2. Video tapes, cassette tape, computer disks, or other media shall be the cost of the media to this office or reproduction cost (copying costs if outside vendor is necessary.)
 3. Mailing costs by U.S. mail or other method of delivery.
 4. Costs incurred for other supplies (envelope, etc.) used in the mailing, delivery, or transmission.

VII. Email

- A. Documents in electronic mail format may be public records as defined in Section II – Public Records. Email is subject to public records requests and applicable retention schedules.
- B. Records in private email accounts used to conduct public business on public property (i.e. county computers) may be subject to disclosure and must be retained as records of the public office, according to established schedules, and made available for inspection and copying in accordance with the Public Records Act.

VIII. Failure to Respond to a Public Records Request

- A. If a requester feels they have been improperly denied public records due to the inability to inspect or to receive a copy of a record, the office shall advise the requester of their following options:
 - 1. Contact the public office's senior representative;
 - 2. Request a meeting to be called with the County Prosecutor;
 - 3. If the requester is not satisfied after exercising options 1 and 2, the Ohio Revised Code provides a legal means for addressing their complaint.

II. Prohibited Uses

Wood County E-mail Retention Policy

ORC 149, 1306.01
Data Processing Board/Records Commission
BCC 10-284; BCC 10-387

I. Purpose: This policy establishes standards for the retention of electronic mail (e-mail) stored centrally on the Wood County government (Wood County) e-mail system maintained by the Wood County IT Department. This policy is to help Wood County e-mail users determine what information sent or received by e-mail should be retained and for how long, in accordance with Ohio public records laws.

A. This Policy applies to all electronic mail systems, services and records provided by or owned by Wood County and maintained by the IT Director including all employees, interns, volunteers or contractors provided with an email account. All questions pertaining to proper classification of specific pieces of information received, sent, or stored should be directed to the appropriate elected official or department head.

II. Definitions

A. E-mail Messages: Electronic documents created and sent or received by a computer system. This definition applies equally to the contents of the communication, the transactional information, and any attachments associated with such communication. Therefore, e-mail messages are similar to other forms of communication messages, such as correspondence, memoranda, and circulated letters.

B. Records: Any document, device, or item, regardless of physical form or characteristic, including an electronic record (as defined in §1306.01 of the Ohio Revised Code ("ORC")) created or received by or coming under the jurisdiction of any public office of the state or its political subdivisions, which serves to document the organization, functions, policies, decisions, procedures, operations, or other activities of the office (ORC 149.011(G)).

C. Litigation Hold: The suspension of record destruction when the office has knowledge of a potential claim, lawsuit, government investigation, subpoena, summons or other ongoing matter.

D. Records Destruction: The timely destruction/deletion of a record once it has exceeded the associated retention period.

III. Retain Official Records as Required under Applicable Retention Schedule

A. E-mail messages that meet the statutory definition of a record are official records and must be scheduled, retained, and disposed of per the retention schedules for each office. If the office has no specific records retention schedule, then the "All County" schedule should be used.

Whether the e-mail serves to document the organization, functions, policies, decisions, procedures, operations or other activities is the deciding factor as to its status as a record. E-mail messages that meet the criteria of a public record must be maintained and made available to the public upon request through the appropriate retention period.

IV. Retention and Scheduling Requirements

- A. Simply backing up the e-mail system onto backup tapes or other media or purging all messages after a set amount of time are not appropriate strategies for managing e-mail.

E-mail itself is not considered a record series or category. It is a means of transmission of messages or information. An office cannot simply schedule all e-mail as a single record series. Rather, retention or destruction of e-mail messages must be related to the information they contain or the purpose they serve. The content, transactional information, and any attachments associated with the message are considered a record (if it meets ORC criteria). Evaluate e-mail content to determine if the e-mail should be retained and the length of the time that each message should be retained.

1. Non-Record Materials: E-mail messages that do not meet the criteria of the Ohio Revised Code definition of a record may be deleted at any time, unless they become part of some official record as a result of special circumstances.
2. Personal Correspondence: Any e-mail not received or created in the course of county business, may be deleted immediately, since it is not an official record: the "Let's do lunch" (not a county-business lunch) or "Can I catch a ride home" type of an e-mail messages.
3. Non-County Publications: Publications, promotional material from vendors, and similar materials that are "publicly available" to anyone, are not official records. This includes listserv messages (other than those you post in your official capacity), unsolicited promotional material ("spam"), files copied or downloaded from Internet sites, etc. These records may be immediately deleted, or maintained in a "Non-Record" mail box folder and deleted later, just as you might dispose of the unwanted publication or promotional flyer.

V. Litigation Hold

- A. A litigation hold is issued by the Wood County Prosecuting Attorney's Office to the appropriate elected official or department head. The elected officials or department head is responsible for notifying all personnel in their office or department who may be custodians of records. Any official or department head who receives notice of a litigation hold must promptly acknowledge receipt of a litigation hold to the Wood County Prosecuting Attorney's Office and ensure that the subject records are retained until the Prosecuting Attorney's Office provides notice that the litigation hold has been released. A litigation hold shall apply to all relevant records, regardless of the format in which they are retained.

VI. Scanned Images of Hardcopy Documents

- A. Hardcopy documents that are scanned by copiers and sent via email, do not qualify as email since the e-mail is the delivery system (similar to an interoffice envelope) and the attached scanned document is a copy of an original. The original hardcopy document would need to be retained accordingly, if it qualifies for the department's retention schedule.

VII. Drafts of Electronic Office Documents

- A. E-mails that contain drafts of documents that are created electronically (Microsoft Word, Excel, Adobe Acrobat, etc...) are not required to be retained as a public record. The e-mail system is being used as a medium to transfer the documents between revisions. The final version of the document should be stored electronically outside of the email system and a hardcopy retained if necessary. The exception to this would be if the draft document is being modified by a private entity (contractor, vendor, etc...). E-mails regarding the draft revisions need to be retained if the body of the e-mail contains comments pertaining to the attached draft.

VIII. Voicemail Attachments in E-mail

- A. Voicemails are considered to be voice related messages. A voicemail may qualify as a public record if it serves to document the activities of the office associated with the voicemail account. Voicemails that do not qualify as a public record can be deleted when they have no administrative value.

IX. Responsibility

- A. Office administrators, individual office employees, records managers, information technology (IT) directors, managers or administrators share the responsibility for managing electronic records. Offices, departments and agencies should clearly identify the roles of each, adopt procedures, train

V. ADA Grievance Procedure

A. Step 1:

1. The complainant or the complainant's representative shall present the complaint, in writing, to the official directing the service or facility where the discrimination has occurred within 10 working days after the alleged incident. The complainant shall describe the situation that gave rise to the complaint, including an explanation of the reasons why the complainant thinks that he or she has experienced discrimination. The official directing the facility or service shall, within 10 days after receiving the complaint, alone or in collaboration with involved staff, reach a decision and communicate the decision to the complainant in writing and provide a copy to the ADA Coordinator.
2. If, for some reason, the complainant feels that the complaint cannot be effectively presented to the official directing the facility or service, the complainant or the complainant's representative may initiate the complaint at Step 2 of this procedure within 10 working days of the alleged incident. However, complainants are strongly encouraged to initiate complaints at Step 1 of this procedure.

B. Step 2:

1. If the complainant feels that the complaint cannot be effectively presented to the official directing the facility or service, or if the complaint is not resolved at Step 1, the complainant may put the complaint in writing using the complaint form provided and forward the form to the ADA Coordinator's Office within 10 working days after the alleged incident if the complaint is initiated at Step 2, or within 10 working days after the receipt of the elected official's or department head's decision if the complaint was initiated at Step 1. The form must present the facts of the complaint and include recommendations of necessary actions to remedy the alleged discrimination to the satisfaction of the complainant.

3. The ADA Coordinator shall notify the appropriate Elected Official and/or Department Head of the allegations and shall conduct an internal investigation of the allegation. The ADA Coordinator shall notify the ADA Compliance Committee of the complaint and of the findings of the internal investigation. The ADA Coordinator shall consider recommendations from the ADA Advisory Committee in arriving at his or her written findings and final decision.
4. In conducting the internal investigation of a complaint, the ADA Coordinator shall make every attempt to resolve the complaint by mutual agreement at this step of the procedure. If the ADA Coordinator is successful in resolving the complaint by mutual agreement, the resolution shall be documented. This agreement must be in writing and signed by all involved parties, including the complainant, the Department Head, and the ADA Coordinator.
5. If, after investigating the matter, the ADA Coordinator finds that the complaint is meritorious, the ADA Coordinator shall, in writing, within 15 to 30 working days issue findings and specify corrective action to be taken by the Elected Official and/or Department Head. The ADA Compliance Committee shall be composed of representatives from elected officials, the disabled community, business or nonprofit sectors, education and the health/medical profession. The committee will be appointed by the Board of Wood County Commissioners.

Employee Discipline Procedures

ORC 124.34, 124.388

Rev. 07-2041

Classified Employees

The purpose of discipline is to correct an employee's performance and/or conduct. Due to its serious and formal nature, discipline shall be initiated only when other methods of correcting the employee's performance have been tried and have failed to result in improved performance. Such methods can include a mandatory referral to the Employee Assistance Program. Any corrective action/discipline shall be documented in writing and placed in the employee's personnel file.

While classified employees hold their positions during good behavior and efficient service, poor job performance or inappropriate behavior including incompetency, inefficiency, dishonesty, drunkenness, immoral conduct, insubordination, discourteous treatment of the public, neglect of duty, violation of any policy or work rule of the Appointing Authority, violation of Chapter 124 of the Ohio Revised Code, any other failure of good behavior, any other acts of misfeasance, malfeasance, nonfeasance in the office, or conviction of a felony, can lead to disciplinary action against an employee.

Disciplinary action includes the following: removal, suspension, fine, reduction in pay, reduction in position, and a last chance agreement.

Normally, discipline will be progressive in nature as noted below.

- 1st Verbal Warning
- 2nd Written Reprimand
- 3rd Suspension/Reduction in Pay or Position/Fine
- 4th Discharge/Termination

Serious infractions can result in immediate discharge without intermediate discipline. Examples of such offenses include but are not limited to:

- Intoxication on County property during work hours
- Possession of intoxicants or illegal substances on County property for use during work hours
- Gambling on County property
- Fighting on County property
- Harassment
- Stealing
- Immoral behavior
- Destruction of property

- Insubordination
- Conviction of a criminal charge
- Dishonesty
- Possession of unauthorized firearms on County property
- Personal Harassment
- Falsification of attendance and/or time records or sick leave abuse
- Unauthorized leave of absence

Employees are entitled to a pre-disciplinary hearing before any suspension, discharge, reduction in pay or position, or fine becomes effective. Employees in their probationary period are not entitled to pre-disciplinary hearings. The Appointing Authority will review the independent pre-disciplinary decision before deciding upon appropriate disciplinary action.

In the case of a reduction, suspension or fine of 40 or more work hours in the case of an FLSA exempt employee, a suspension or fine of 24 or more work hours in the case of a non-exempt employee, or removal, except for the reduction or removal of a probationary employee, the Appointing Authority shall serve the employee with a copy of the order of reduction, fine, suspension, or removal, which shall state the reasons for the action. A copy of the action shall become part of the employee's permanent personnel file.

The Appointing Authority may require an employee who is suspended to report to work to serve the suspension. An employee serving a suspension in this manner shall continue to be compensated at the employee's regular rate of pay for hours worked. Such disciplinary action shall be recorded in the employee's personnel file in the same manner as other disciplinary actions and has the same effect as a suspension without pay for the purpose of recording disciplinary actions.

At the discretion of the Appointing Authority, a last chance agreement shall be signed by both the Appointing Authority and an employee of the Appointing Authority that describes the type of behavior or circumstances that, if it occurs, will automatically lead to removal of the officer or employee without the right of appeal to the state personnel board of review or the appropriate commission.

An Appointing Authority may, in its discretion, place an employee on administrative leave with pay only in circumstances where the health or safety of an employee or of any person or property entrusted to the employee's care could be adversely affected.

An Appointing Authority may, in its discretion, place an employee on administrative leave without pay for a period not to exceed two months, if the employee has been charged with a violation of law that is punishable as a felony. If the employee subsequently does not plead guilty to or is not found guilty of a felony with which the employee is charged or any other felony, the Appointing Authority shall pay the employee at the employee's base rate of pay, plus interest, for the period the employee was on the unpaid administrative leave.

Unclassified Employees

Unclassified employees are held accountable for their job performance. Inappropriate activities such as employee misconduct or non-compliance with policy and procedures may lead to disciplinary action against the employee. The Appointing Authority has the discretion to impose sanctions immediately ranging from verbal warnings to immediate discharge without due process.

The use of due process does not alter the status of an unclassified employee.

Reductions in Pay or Position (Demotions)

ORC 124.34

A demotion is the placement of an employee to a lower level position with the same or lower salary. A demotion may be imposed as a disciplinary action or may be requested by the employee. The salary of the employee is governed by the salary range established for the new position.

Voluntary demotions, those done at the request of the employee, are not detrimental to the employee's work record and generally do not affect opportunities for future promotions.

Grievance Procedures

In the event that an employee has a complaint related to a work assignment or other work related matter, the employee may bring the matter to his/her immediate Supervisor for resolution.

If the matter is unresolved, the employee may submit the complaint, in writing, to the next responsible Supervisor or Department Head.

If the complaint is not resolved by the next responsible Supervisor or Department Head, the employee may submit the complaint, in writing, to the Appointing Authority. The Appointing Authority may conduct an investigation to gather information to resolve the matter.

Performance Reviews

Employees shall meet with their supervisors on an annual basis to discuss performance related issues. The evaluation is used to record the overall quality of employees' work performance, indicate desirable capabilities, set goals and identify the work, attitude, and/or behavior needing improvement.

Employees also receive performance reviews at the completion of their probationary period.

A Supervisor may recognize unusual excellence or deficiencies in an employee's work with a special performance evaluation conducted at any time.

5. Tests will be conducted for substances set forth in 49 CFP Part 40, and as amended. This includes, but is not limited to marijuana, cocaine, opiates, amphetamines, phencyclidine, and ecstasy. Upon reasonable cause, the county will test for other illegal drugs. In such event, a second urine sample will be provided by the employee.
6. An initial drug screen will be conducted on each specimen. For those specimens that are not negative, a confirmatory gas Chromatography/Mass Spectrometry (GC/MC) test will be performed. The test will be considered positive if the amounts present are above the minimum thresholds established in 49 CFR 40, as amended.
7. Tests for alcohol concentration will be conducted utilizing a National Highway Traffic Safety Administration (NHTSA) - approved evidential breath testing device (EBT) operated by a trained breath alcohol technician (BAT). rehabilitation programs available and evaluated by a substance abuse professional (SAP). Employee assessment by a SAP is detailed in Section IX of this policy.

VI. When Testing is Required

A. Pre-Employment Testing

1. Prior to the first time an employee performs safety-sensitive functions for the County, the driver shall undergo testing for alcohol and controlled substances. No driver shall perform safety-sensitive functions unless the driver has been administered an alcohol test with a result indicating an alcohol concentration less than 0.04, and has received a controlled substances test result from the medical review officer indicating a verified negative test result.
2. Exceptions to pre-employment testing shall be granted in accordance with 49 CFR section 382.301.

B. Post-Accident Testing

1. As soon as practicable following an accident involving a commercial motor vehicle, each surviving driver shall be tested for alcohol or controlled substances, if:
 - a. He/she was performing safety sensitive functions with respect to the vehicle if the accident involved the loss of human life; or
 - b. He/she receives a citation under state or local law for a moving traffic violation arising from the accident.
2. A driver will be tested for alcohol within two (2) hours of an accident. If an alcohol test is not accomplished within two (2) hours of an accident, then a written record shall be made stating the reasons the alcohol test was not promptly administered. If the alcohol test has not been accomplished within eight (8) hours following notification, the County shall stop its attempt to administer the alcohol test and it shall make and retain in the file a record of the reasons the alcohol test was not properly administered.
3. If a driver has not submitted a controlled substance test within thirty-two (32) hours of an accident, the County shall stop its attempt to administer the controlled substance test. It shall then make and retain in file a record of the reasons a controlled substance test was not properly administered.
4. A driver who is involved in an accident must refrain from alcohol use for eight (8) hours following an accident or until he/she undergoes a post-accident alcohol test. Drivers who leave the scene of an accident without a justifiable explanation prior to submission to drug and alcohol testing will be considered to have refused the test, and they will be subject to termination.

5. A driver who is seriously injured and cannot provide a specimen at the time of the accident shall provide the necessary authorization for obtaining medical reports and other documents which would indicate whether there were any alcohol or controlled substances in his/her system at the time of the accident.
6. The County can use, by permission from the Federal Highway Administration, post-accident tests conducted by federal, state or local officials as meeting the requirements of this section under the following conditions:
 - a. The official must have independent authority to conduct the test.
 - b. The test must conform to federal, state, or local requirements.
 - c. Alcohol tests require blood or breath samples.

D. Reasonable Suspicion Testing

1. Alcohol: A driver must submit to urine and/or breath testing when reasonable suspicion exists that the driver has an alcohol concentration between 0.02 and 0.04 or greater or has consumed alcohol within four hours of performing a safety sensitive function. The County's "reasonable suspicion" must be based on specific, contemporaneous, articulable observations concerning the appearance, behavior, speech or body odors of the driver.
2. Controlled substances: A driver must submit to a controlled substance test when reasonable suspicion to be that a driver has used or is under the influence of controlled substances. The County's reasonable suspicion must be based on specific, contemporaneous, articulable observations concerning the appearance, behavior, speech or body odors of the driver and may include indications of the chronic and withdrawal effect of controlled substances.
3. Alcohol testing is authorized by this section only if the observations required are made during, just preceding, or just after the period of the work day that the driver is required to be in compliance with this part. A driver may be directed by the employer to only undergo reasonable suspicion testing while the driver is performing safety-sensitive functions, just before the driver is to perform safety-sensitive functions, or just after the driver has ceased performing such functions.
4. Reasonable suspicion determinations will be made by a supervisor. The County will provide supervisors with a minimum of 60 minutes of training on alcohol misuse, and a minimum of 60 minutes of training on controlled substance abuse. Training shall include: physical behavior, speech and performance indicators consistent with alcohol and controlled substance use and misuse.
5. Once an employee has been notified that a reasonable suspicion test will be conducted it must take place within two (2) hours of the notification. If the test is not accomplished within two (2) hours a written record shall be made stating the reasons the alcohol test was not promptly administered. The if test has not been accomplished within eight (8) hours following notification, the County shall stop its attempt to administer the test and make and retain in file a record of the reasons the alcohol test was not properly administered.
6. A written record shall be made documenting the employee's conduct with respect to an alcohol and/or controlled substance reasonable suspicion test and must be signed by the supervisor or official who observed the behavior.

E. Return-to-Duty Testing

1. Before a driver returns to duty requiring the performance of a safety-sensitive function after engaging in conduct prohibited Section III of this part concerning alcohol, the driver shall undergo a return-to-duty alcohol test with a result indicating an alcohol concentration of less than 0.02.
2. Before a driver returns to duty requiring the performance of a safety-sensitive function after engaging in conduct prohibited by Section IV undergo a return-to-duty controlled substances test with a result indicating a verified negative result for controlled substances use.

VII. Test Related Procedures

A. Follow-up Testing

2. Follow-up alcohol testing shall be conducted only when the driver is performing safety-sensitive functions, just before the driver is to perform safety-sensitive functions, or just after the driver has ceased performing safety-sensitive functions.
3. There will be a minimum of six follow-up controlled substance and/or alcohol tests in the first 12 months following re-entry to the job. Follow-up testing may be extended for up to 60 months following an employee's return-to-duty.

B. Employee Requested Split Sample Test

1. Any driver who questions the results of a required drug test may request that an additional test be conducted. This test must be conducted at a different testing DHHS-certified laboratory. The test must be conducted on the split sample that was provided at the same time as the original sample. All costs for such testing are paid by the employee, unless the second test invalidates the original test.
2. The employee's request for a split sample test must be made within 72 hours of notice of the initial test result. Requests after 72 hours will only be accepted if the delay was due to documentable facts that were beyond the control of the employee.

C. Refusal to Test

SAP services will be provided by an appropriate certified professional who implements an employee assistance program for the County.
2. The County will consider employees who test positively to be medically unqualified and they shall be disqualified from working for the County until they have been released to return-to-duty by the SAP. Drivers will be allowed to elect rehabilitation through available sources in lieu of discipline the first time that they have a positive result on an alcohol or controlled substance test. However, rehabilitation in lieu of discipline may not be available where the offense giving rise to the discipline is so severe as to make the employee ineligible for continued employment.
3. For those seeking treatment, whether voluntarily or by reason of mandatory rehabilitation in lieu of discipline, the employee benefits that would otherwise be available to the employee shall continue--for example, sick leave, leaves of absence, vacation leave, personal business leave, compensatory leave, Family Medical Leave, and group health insurance benefits.
4. If an employee is allowed to return-to-duty, he/she must follow the rehabilitation program prescribed by the SAP. The employee must pass return-to-duty drug and alcohol tests and unannounced follow-up tests for a period of one to five years. The costs associated with any treatment for rehabilitation services shall be paid directly by the employee or his/her insurance provider.
5. Assessment by a SAP does not shield an employee from disciplinary action or guarantee employment or reinstatement with the County.

E. Employee Discipline

1. A driver with an alcohol concentration more than 0.02 or greater or a positive controlled substance test will be subject to discipline and/or termination.
2. A driver who is eligible for assessment and treatment in lieu of termination will still be subject to discipline.
3. Any driver who refuses to test for alcohol or controlled substances will be terminated.
4. Any employee who refuses or fails to comply with County requirements for treatment, after care, or return-to-duty shall be subject to termination.

(4) For a period of one year after the conclusion of employment or service as a member or employee of the general assembly, no former member or employee of the general assembly shall represent, or act in a representative capacity for, any person on any matter before the general assembly, any committee of the general assembly, or the controlling board. Division (A)(4) of this section does not apply to or affect a person who separates from service with the general assembly on or before December 31, 1995. As used in division (A)(4) of this section "person" does not include any state agency or political subdivision of the state.

(5) As used in divisions (A)(1), (2), and (3) of this section, "matter" includes any case, proceeding, application, determination, issue, or question, but does not include the proposal, consideration, or enactment of statutes, rules, ordinances, resolutions, or charter or constitutional amendments. As used in division (A)(4) of this section, "matter" includes the proposal, consideration, or enactment of statutes, resolutions, or constitutional amendments. As used in division (A) of this section, "represent" includes any formal or informal appearance before, or any written or oral communication with, any public agency on behalf of any person.

(6) Nothing contained in division (A) of this section shall prohibit, during such period, a former public official or employee from being retained or employed to represent, assist, or act in a representative capacity for the public agency by which the public official or employee was employed or on which the public official or employee served.

(7) Division (A) of this section shall not be construed to prohibit the performance of ministerial functions, including, but not limited to, the filing or amendment of tax returns, applications for permits and licenses, incorporation papers, and other similar documents.

(8) No present or former Ohio casino control commission official shall, during public service or for two years thereafter, represent a client, be employed or compensated by a person regulated by the commission, or act in a representative capacity for any person on any matter before or concerning the commission.

No present or former commission employee shall, during public employment or for two years thereafter, represent a client or act in a representative capacity on any matter in which the employee personally participated as a commission employee through decision, approval, disapproval, recommendation, the rendering of advice, investigation, or other substantial exercise of administrative discretion.

(B) No present or former public official or employee shall disclose or use, without appropriate authorization, any information acquired by the public official or employee in the course of the public official's or employee's official duties that is confidential because of statutory provisions, or that has been clearly designated to the public official or employee as confidential when that confidential designation is warranted because of the status of the proceedings or the circumstances under which the information was received and preserving its confidentiality is necessary to the proper conduct of government business.

(C) No public official or employee shall participate within the scope of duties as a public official or employee, except through ministerial functions as defined in division (A) of this section, in any license or rate-making proceeding that directly affects the license or rates of any person, partnership, trust, business trust, corporation, or association in which the public official or employee or immediate family owns or controls more than five per cent. No public official or employee shall participate within the scope of duties as a public official or employee, except through ministerial functions as defined in division (A) of this section, in any license or rate-making proceeding that directly affects the license or rates of any person to whom the public official or employee or immediate family, or a partnership, trust, business trust, corporation, or association of which the public official or employee or the public official's or employee's immediate family owns or controls more than five per cent, has sold goods or services totaling more than one thousand dollars during the preceding year, unless the public official or employee has filed a written statement acknowledging that sale with the clerk or secretary of the public agency and the statement is entered in any public record of the agency's proceedings. This division shall not be construed to require the disclosure of clients of attorneys or persons licensed under section 4732.12 or 4732.15 of the Revised Code, or patients of persons certified under section 4731.14 of the Revised Code.

(D) No public official or employee shall use or authorize the use of the authority or influence of office or employment to secure anything of value or the promise or offer of anything of value that is of such a character as to manifest a substantial and improper influence upon the public official or employee with respect to that person's duties.

(E) No public official or employee shall solicit or accept anything of value that is of such a character as to manifest a substantial and improper influence upon the public official or employee with respect to that person's duties.

(F) No person shall promise or give to a public official or employee anything of value that is of such a character as to manifest a substantial and improper influence upon the public official or employee with respect to that person's duties.

(G) In the absence of bribery or another offense under the Revised Code or a purpose to defraud, contributions made to a campaign committee, political party, legislative campaign fund, political action committee, or political contributing entity on behalf of an elected public officer or other public official or employee who seeks elective office shall be considered to accrue ordinarily to the public official or employee for the purposes of divisions (D), (E), and (F) of this section.

As used in this division, "contributions," "campaign committee," "political party," "legislative campaign fund," "political action committee," and "political contributing entity" have the same meanings as in section 3517.01 of the Revised Code.

(H)(1) No public official or employee, except for the president or other chief administrative officer of or a member of a board of trustees of a state institution of higher education as defined in section 3345.011 of the Revised Code, who is required to file a financial disclosure statement under section 102.02 of the Revised Code shall solicit or accept, and no person shall give to that public official or employee, an honorarium. Except as provided in division (H)(2) of this section, this division and divisions (D), (E), and (F) of this section do not prohibit a public official or employee who is required to file a financial disclosure statement under section 102.02 of the Revised Code from accepting and do not prohibit a person from giving to that public official or employee the payment of actual travel expenses, including any expenses incurred in connection with the travel for lodging, and meals, food, and beverages provided to the public official or employee at a meeting at which the public official or employee participates in a panel, seminar, or speaking engagement or provided to the public official or employee at a meeting or convention of a national organization to which any state agency, including, but not limited to, any state legislative agency or state institution of higher education as defined in section 3345.011 of the Revised Code, pays membership dues. Except as provided in division (H)(2) of this section, this division and divisions (D), (E), and (F) of this section do not prohibit a public official or employee who is not required to file a financial disclosure statement under section 102.02 of the Revised Code from accepting and do not prohibit a person from promising or giving to that public official or employee an honorarium or the payment of travel, meal, and lodging expenses if the honorarium, expenses, or both were paid in recognition of demonstrable business, professional, or esthetic interests of the public official or employee that exist apart from public office or employment, including, but not limited to, such a demonstrable interest in public speaking and were not paid by any person or other entity, or by any representative or association of those persons or entities, that is regulated by, doing business with, or seeking to do business with the department, division, institution, board, commission, authority, bureau, or other instrumentality of the governmental entity with which the public official or employee serves.

(2) No person who is a member of the board of a state retirement system, a state retirement system investment officer, or an employee of a state retirement system whose position involves substantial and material exercise of discretion in the investment of retirement system funds shall solicit or accept, and no person shall give to that board member, officer, or employee, payment of actual travel expenses, including expenses incurred with the travel for lodging, meals, food, and beverages.

(I) A public official or employee may accept travel, meals, and lodging or expenses or reimbursement of expenses for travel, meals, and lodging in connection with conferences, seminars, and similar events related to official duties if the travel, meals, and lodging, expenses, or reimbursement is not of such a character as to manifest a substantial and improper influence upon the public official or employee with respect to that person's duties. The house of representatives and senate, in their code of ethics, and the Ohio ethics commission, under section 111.15 of the Revised Code, may adopt rules setting standards and conditions for the furnishing and acceptance of such travel, meals, and lodging, expenses, or reimbursement.

A person who acts in compliance with this division and any applicable rules adopted under it, or any applicable, similar rules adopted by the supreme court governing judicial officers and employees, does not violate division (D), (E), or (F) of this section. This division does not preclude any person from seeking an advisory opinion from the appropriate ethics commission under section 102.08 of the Revised Code.

(J) For purposes of divisions (D), (E), and (F) of this section, the membership of a public official or employee in an organization shall not be considered, in and of itself, to be of such a character as to manifest a substantial and improper influence on the public official or employee with respect to that person's duties. As used in this division, "organization" means a church or a religious, benevolent, fraternal, or professional organization that is tax exempt under subsection 501(a) and described in subsection 501(c) (3), (4), (8), (10), or (19) of the "Internal Revenue Code of 1986." This division does not apply to a public official or employee who is an employee of an organization, serves as a trustee, director, or officer of an organization, or otherwise holds a fiduciary relationship with an organization. This division does not allow a public official or employee who is a member of an organization to participate, formally or informally, in deliberations, discussions, or voting on a matter or to use his official position with regard to the interests of the organization on the matter if the public official or employee has assumed a particular responsibility in the organization with respect to the matter or if the matter would affect that person's personal, pecuniary interests.

(K) It is not a violation of this section for a prosecuting attorney to appoint assistants and employees in accordance with division (B) of section 309.06 and section 2921.421 of the Revised Code, for a chief legal officer of a municipal corporation or an official designated as prosecutor in a municipal corporation to appoint assistants and employees in accordance with sections 733.621 and 2921.421 of the Revised Code, for a township law director appointed under section 504.15 of the Revised Code to appoint assistants and employees in accordance with sections 504.151 and 2921.421 of the Revised Code, or for a coroner to appoint assistants and employees in accordance with division (B) of section 313.05 of the Revised Code.

As used in this division, “chief legal officer” has the same meaning as in section 733.621 of the Revised Code.

(L) No present public official or employee with a casino gaming regulatory function shall indirectly invest, by way of an entity the public official or employee has an ownership interest or control in, or directly invest in a casino operator, management company, holding company, casino facility, or gaming-related vendor. No present public official or employee with a casino gaming regulatory function shall directly or indirectly have a financial interest in, have an ownership interest in, be the creditor or hold a debt instrument issued by, or have an interest in a contractual or service relationship with a casino operator, management company, holding company, casino facility, or gaming-related vendor. This section does not prohibit or limit permitted passive investing by the public official or employee.

As used in this division, "passive investing" means investment by the public official or employee by means of a mutual fund in which the public official or employee has no control of the investments or investment decisions. "Casino operator," "holding company," "management company," "casino facility," and "gaming-related vendor" have the same meanings as in section 3772.01 of the Revised Code.

(M) A member of the Ohio casino control commission, the executive director of the commission, or an employee of the commission shall not:

(1) Accept anything of value, including but not limited to a gift, gratuity, emolument, or employment from a casino operator, management company, or other person subject to the jurisdiction of the commission, or from an officer, attorney, agent, or employee of a casino operator, management company, or other person subject to the jurisdiction of the commission;

(2) Solicit, suggest, request, or recommend, directly or indirectly, to a casino operator, management company, or other person subject to the jurisdiction of the commission, or to an officer, attorney, agent, or employee of a casino operator, management company, or other person subject to the jurisdiction of the commission, the appointment of a person to an office, place, position, or employment;

(3) Participate in casino gaming or any other amusement or activity at a casino facility in this state or at an affiliate gaming facility of a licensed casino operator, wherever located.

In addition to the penalty provided in section 102.99 of the Revised Code, whoever violates division (M)(1), (2), or (3) of this section forfeits the individual's office or employment.

Sec. 102.031

(A) As used in this section:

(1) “Business associate” means a person with whom a member of the general assembly is conducting or undertaking a financial transaction.

(2) “Contribution” has the same meaning as in section 3517.01 of the Revised Code.

(3) “Employee” does not include a member of the general assembly whose nonlegislative position of employment does not involve the performance of or the authority to perform administrative or supervisory functions; or whose nonlegislative position of employment, if the member is a public employee, does not involve a substantial and material exercise of administrative discretion in the formulation of public policy, expenditure of public funds, enforcement of laws and rules of the state or a county or city, or execution of other public trusts.

(B) No member of the general assembly shall vote on any legislation that the member knows is then being actively advocated if the member is one of the following with respect to a legislative agent or employer that is then actively advocating on that legislation:

(1) An employee;

(2) A business associate;

(3) A person, other than an employee, who is hired under contract to perform certain services, and that position involves a substantial and material exercise of administrative discretion in the formulation of public policy.

(C) No member of the general assembly shall knowingly accept any of the following from a legislative agent or a person required to file a statement described in division (A)(2) of section 102.021 of the Revised Code:

(1) The payment of any expenses for travel or lodging except as otherwise authorized by division (H) of section 102.03 of the Revised Code;

(2) More than seventy-five dollars aggregated per calendar year as payment for meals and other food and beverages, other than for those meals and other food and beverages provided to the member at a meeting at which the member participates in a panel, seminar, or speaking engagement, at a meeting or convention of a national organization to which any state agency, including, but not limited to, any legislative agency or state institution of higher education as defined in section 3345.011 of the Revised Code, pays membership dues, or at a dinner, party, or function to which all members of the general assembly or all members of either house of the general assembly are invited;

(3) A gift of any amount in the form of cash or the equivalent of cash, or a gift of any other thing of value whose value exceeds seventy-five dollars. As used in division (C)(3) of this section, "gift" does not include any contribution or any gifts of meals and other food and beverages or the payment of expenses incurred for travel to destinations either inside or outside this state that is received by a member of the general assembly and that is incurred in connection with the member's official duties.

(D) It is not a violation of division (C)(2) of this section if, within sixty days after receiving notice from a legislative agent that the legislative agent has provided a member of the general assembly with more than seventy-five dollars aggregated in a calendar year as payment for meals and other food and beverages, the member of the general assembly returns to that legislative agent the amount received that exceeds seventy-five dollars.

(E) The joint legislative ethics committee may impose a fine of not more than one thousand dollars upon a member of the general assembly who violates division (B) of this section.

Section 102.04

(A) Except as provided in division (D) of this section, no person elected or appointed to an office of or employed by the general assembly or any department, division, institution, instrumentality, board, commission, or bureau of the state, excluding the courts, shall receive or agree to receive directly or indirectly compensation other than from the agency with which he serves for any service rendered or to be rendered by him personally in any case, proceeding, application, or other matter that is before the general assembly or any department, division, institution, instrumentality, board, commission, or bureau of the state, excluding the courts.

(B) Except as provided in division (D) of this section, no person elected or appointed to an office of or employed by the general assembly or any department, division, institution, instrumentality, board, commission, or bureau of the state, excluding the courts, shall sell or agree to sell, except through competitive bidding, any goods or services to the general assembly or any department, division, institution, instrumentality, board, commission, or bureau of the state, excluding the courts.

(C) Except as provided in division (D) of this section, no person who is elected or appointed to an office of or employed by a county, township, municipal corporation, or any other governmental entity, excluding the courts, shall receive or agree to receive directly or indirectly compensation other than from the agency with which he serves for any service rendered or to be rendered by him personally in any case, proceeding, application, or other matter which is before any agency, department, board, bureau, commission, or other instrumentality, excluding the courts, of the entity of which he is an officer or employee.

(D) A public official who is appointed to a nonelective office or a public employee shall be exempted from division (A), (B), or (C) of this section if both of the following apply:

(1) The agency to which the official or employee wants to sell the goods or services, or before which the matter that involves the rendering of his services is pending, is an agency other than the one with which he serves;

(2) Prior to rendering the personal services or selling or agreeing to sell the goods or services, he files a statement with the appropriate ethics commission, with the public agency with which he serves, and with the public agency before which the matter is pending or that is purchasing or has agreed to purchase goods or services.

The required statement shall contain the official's or employee's name and home address, the name and mailing address of the public agencies with which he serves and before which the matter is pending or that is purchasing or has agreed to purchase goods or services, and a brief description of the pending matter and of the personal services to be rendered or a brief description of the goods or services to be purchased. The statement shall also contain the public official's or employee's declaration that he disqualifies himself for a period of two years from any participation as such public official or employee in any matter involving any public official or employee of the agency before which the present matter is pending or to which goods or services are to be sold. The two-year period shall run from the date of the most recently filed statement regarding the agency before which the matter was pending or to which the goods or services were to be sold. No person shall be required to file statements under this division with the same public agency regarding a particular matter more than once in a calendar year.

(E) No public official or employee who files a statement or is required to file a statement under division (D) of this section shall knowingly fail to disqualify himself from any participation as a public official or employee of the agency with which he serves in any matter involving any official or employee of an agency before which a matter for which he rendered personal services was pending or of a public agency that purchased or agreed to purchase goods or services.

(F) This section shall not be construed to prohibit the performance of ministerial functions including, but not limited to, the filing, or amendment of tax returns, applications for permits and licenses, incorporation papers, and other documents.

Section 102.05

There is hereby created the Ohio ethics commission consisting of six members, three of whom shall be members of each of the two major political parties, to be appointed by the governor with the advice and consent of the senate. Within thirty days of the effective date of this section, the governor shall make initial appointments to the commission. Of the initial appointments made to the commission, one shall be for a term ending one year after the effective date of this section, and the other appointments shall be for terms ending two, three, four, five, and six years, respectively, after the effective date of this section. Thereafter, terms of office shall be for six years, each term ending on the same day of the same month of the year as did the term that it succeeds. Each member shall hold office from the date of his appointment until the end of the term for which he was appointed. Any member appointed to fill a vacancy occurring prior to the expiration of the term for which his predecessor was appointed shall hold office for the remainder of that term.

No person shall be appointed to the commission or shall continue to serve as a member of the commission if the person is subject to section 102.02 of the Revised Code other than by reason of his appointment to the commission or if the person is a legislative agent registered under sections 101.70 to 101.79 of the Revised Code or an executive agency lobbyist registered under sections 121.60 to 121.69 of the Revised Code. Each member shall be paid seventy-five dollars for each meeting held in the discharge of his official duties, except that no member shall be paid more than eighteen hundred dollars in any fiscal year. Each member shall be reimbursed for expenses actually and necessarily incurred in the performance of his official duties.

The commission shall meet within two weeks after all members have been appointed, at a time and place determined by the governor. At its first meeting, the commission shall elect a chairman and other officers that are necessary and shall adopt rules for its procedures. After the first meeting, the commission shall meet at the call of the chairman or upon the written request of a majority of the members. A majority of the members of the commission constitutes a quorum. The commission shall not take any action without the concurrence of a majority of the members of the commission.

The commission may appoint and fix the compensation of an executive director and other technical, professional, and clerical employees that are necessary to carry out the duties of the commission.

The commission may appoint hearing examiners to conduct hearings pursuant to section 102.06 of the Revised Code. The hearing examiners have the same powers and authority in conducting the hearings as is granted to the commission. Within thirty days after the hearing, the hearing examiner shall submit to the commission a written report of his findings of fact and conclusions of law and a recommendation of the action to be taken by the commission. The recommendation of the hearing examiner may be approved, modified, or disapproved by the commission, and no recommendation shall become the findings of the commission until so ordered by the commission. The findings of the commission shall have the same effect as if the hearing had been conducted by the commission. Hearing examiners appointed pursuant to this section shall possess the qualifications the commission requires. Nothing contained in this section shall preclude the commission from appointing a member of the commission to serve as a hearing examiner.

Section 102.06

(A) The appropriate ethics commission shall receive and may initiate complaints against persons subject to this chapter concerning conduct alleged to be in violation of this chapter or section 2921.42 or 2921.43 of the Revised Code. All complaints except those by the commission shall be by affidavit made on personal knowledge, subject to the penalties of perjury. Complaints by the commission shall be by affidavit, based upon reasonable cause to believe that a violation has occurred.

(B) The appropriate ethics commission shall investigate complaints, may investigate charges presented to it, and may request further information, including the specific amount of income from a source, from any person filing with the commission a statement required by section 102.02 or 102.021 of the Revised Code, if the information sought is directly relevant to a complaint or charges received by the commission pursuant to this section. This information is confidential, except that the commission, in its discretion, may share information gathered in the course of any investigation with, or disclose the information to, the inspector general, any appropriate prosecuting authority, any law enforcement agency, or any other appropriate ethics commission. If the accused person is a member of the public employees retirement board, state teachers retirement board, school employees retirement board, board of trustees of the Ohio police and fire pension fund, or state highway patrol retirement board, or is a member of the bureau of workers' compensation board of directors, the appropriate ethics commission, in its discretion, also may share information gathered in the course of an investigation with, or disclose the information to, the attorney general and the auditor of state. The person so requested shall furnish the information to the commission, unless within fifteen days from the date of the request the person files an action for declaratory judgment challenging the legitimacy of the request in the court of common pleas of the county of the person's residence, the person's place of employment, or Franklin county. The requested information need not be furnished to the commission during the pendency of the judicial proceedings. Proceedings of the commission in connection with the declaratory judgment action shall be kept confidential except as otherwise provided by this section. Before the commission proceeds to take any formal action against a person who is the subject of an investigation based on charges presented to the commission, a complaint shall be filed against the person. If the commission finds that a complaint is not frivolous, and there is reasonable cause to believe that the facts alleged in a complaint constitute a violation of section 102.02, 102.021, 102.03, 102.04, 102.07, 2921.42, or 2921.43 of the Revised Code, it shall hold a hearing. If the commission does not so find, it shall dismiss the complaint and notify the accused person in writing of the dismissal of the complaint. The commission shall not make a report of its finding unless the accused person requests a report. Upon the request of the accused person, the commission shall make a public report of its finding. The person against whom the complaint is directed shall be given reasonable notice by certified mail of the date, time, and place of the hearing and a statement of the charges and the law directly involved and shall be given the opportunity to be represented by counsel, to have counsel appointed for the person if the person is unable to afford counsel without undue hardship, to examine the evidence against the person, to produce evidence and to call and subpoena witnesses in the person's defense, to confront the person's accusers, and to cross-examine witnesses. The commission shall have a stenographic record made of the hearing. The hearing shall be closed to the public.

(C)(1)(a) If, upon the basis of the hearing, the appropriate ethics commission finds by a preponderance of the evidence that the facts alleged in the complaint are true and constitute a violation of section 102.02, 102.021, 102.03, 102.04, 102.07, 2921.42, or 2921.43 of the Revised Code, it shall report its findings to the appropriate prosecuting authority for proceedings in prosecution of the violation and to the appointing or employing authority of the accused. If the accused person is a member of the public employees retirement board, state teachers retirement board, school employees retirement board, board of trustees of the Ohio police and fire pension fund, or state highway patrol retirement board, the commission also shall report its findings to the Ohio retirement study council.

(b) If the Ohio ethics commission reports its findings to the appropriate prosecuting authority under division (C)(1)(a) of this section and the prosecuting authority has not initiated any official action on those findings within ninety days after receiving the commission's report of them, the commission may publicly comment that no official action has been taken on its findings, except that the commission shall make no comment in violation of the Rules of Criminal Procedure or about any indictment that has been sealed pursuant to any law or those rules. The commission shall make no comment regarding the merits of its findings. As used in division (C)(1)(b) of this section, "official action" means prosecution, closure after investigation, or grand jury action resulting in a true bill of indictment or no true bill of indictment.

(2) If the appropriate ethics commission does not find by a preponderance of the evidence that the facts alleged in the complaint are true and constitute a violation of section 102.02, 102.021, 102.03, 102.04, 102.07, 2921.42, or 2921.43 of the Revised Code or if the commission has not scheduled a hearing within ninety days after the complaint is filed or has not finally disposed of the complaint within six months after it has been heard, it shall dismiss the complaint and notify the accused person in writing of the dismissal of the complaint. The commission shall not make a report of its finding unless the accused person requests a report. Upon the request of the accused person, the commission shall make a public report of the finding, but in this case all evidence and the record of the hearing shall remain confidential unless the accused person also requests that the evidence and record be made public. Upon request by the accused person, the commission shall make the evidence and the record available for public inspection.

(D) The appropriate ethics commission, or a member of the commission, may administer oaths, and the commission may issue subpoenas to any person in the state compelling the attendance of witnesses and the production of relevant papers, books, accounts, and records. The commission shall issue subpoenas to compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of documents upon the request of an accused person. Section 101.42 of the Revised Code shall govern the issuance of these subpoenas insofar as applicable. Upon the refusal of any person to obey a subpoena or to be sworn or to answer as a witness, the commission may apply to the court of common pleas of Franklin county under section 2705.03 of the Revised Code. The court shall hold proceedings in accordance with Chapter 2705. of the Revised Code. The commission or the accused person may take the depositions of witnesses residing within or without the state in the same manner as prescribed by law for the taking of depositions in civil actions in the court of common pleas.

(E) At least once each year, the Ohio ethics commission shall report on its activities of the immediately preceding year to the majority and minority leaders of the senate and house of representatives of the general assembly. The report shall indicate the total number of complaints received, initiated, and investigated by the commission, the total number of complaints for which formal hearings were held, and the total number of complaints for which formal prosecution was recommended or requested by the commission. The report also shall indicate the nature of the inappropriate conduct alleged in each complaint and the governmental entity with which any employee or official that is the subject of a complaint was employed at the time of the alleged inappropriate conduct.

(F) All papers, records, affidavits, and documents upon any complaint, inquiry, or investigation relating to the proceedings of the appropriate ethics commission shall be sealed and are private and confidential, except as otherwise provided in this section and section 102.07 of the Revised Code.

(G)(1) When a complaint or charge is before it, the Ohio ethics commission or the appropriate prosecuting authority, in consultation with the person filing the complaint or charge, the accused, and any other person the commission or prosecuting authority considers necessary, may compromise or settle the complaint or charge with the agreement of the accused. The compromise or settlement may include mediation, restitution, rescission of affected contracts, forfeiture of any benefits resulting from a violation or potential violation of law, resignation of a public official or employee, or any other relief that is agreed upon between the commission or prosecuting authority and the accused.

(2) Any settlement agreement entered into under division (G)(1) of this section shall be in writing and be accompanied by a statement of the findings of the commission or prosecuting authority and the reasons for entering into the agreement. The commission or prosecuting authority shall retain the agreement and statement in the commission's or prosecuting authority's office and, in the commission's or prosecuting authority's discretion, may make the agreement, the statement, and any supporting information public, unless the agreement provides otherwise.

(3) If a settlement agreement is breached by the accused, the commission or prosecuting authority, in the commission's or prosecuting authority's discretion, may rescind the agreement and reinstitute any investigation, hearing, or prosecution of the accused. No information obtained from the accused in reaching the settlement that is not otherwise discoverable from the accused shall be used in any proceeding before the commission or by the appropriate prosecuting authority in prosecuting the violation. Notwithstanding any other section of the Revised Code, if a settlement agreement is breached, any statute of limitations for a violation of this chapter or section 2921.42 or 2921.43 of the Revised Code is tolled from the date the complaint or charge is filed until the date the settlement agreement is breached.

No person shall divulge information that appears on a disclosure statement and is required to be kept confidential under division (B) of section 102.02 of the Revised Code.

Section 102.08*

* See also following version of this section and explanation after that version.

(A)(1) Subject to division (A)(2) of this section, the board of commissioners on grievances and discipline of the supreme court and the house and senate legislative ethics committees may recommend legislation relating to ethics, conflicts of interest, and financial disclosure and shall render advisory opinions with regard to questions concerning these matters for persons for whom it is the appropriate ethics commission. When the appropriate ethics commission renders an advisory opinion relating to a special set of circumstances involving ethics, conflict of interest, or financial disclosure under Chapter 102. or section 2921.42 or 2921.43 of the Revised Code, the person to whom the opinion was directed or who was similarly situated may reasonably rely upon the opinion and shall be immune from criminal prosecutions, civil suits, or actions for removal from his office or position of employment for a violation of Chapter 102. or section 2921.42 or 2921.43 of the Revised Code based on facts and circumstances covered by the opinion, if the opinion states there is no violation of Chapter 102. or section 2921.42 or 2921.43 of the Revised Code. Except as otherwise provided in division (A)(2) of this section, the appropriate ethics commission shall include in every advisory opinion it renders a statement as to whether the set of circumstances described in the opinion constitutes a violation of section 2921.42 or 2921.43 of the Revised Code. The appropriate ethics commission shall provide a continuing program of education and information concerning the provisions of Chapter 102. and sections 2921.42 and 2921.43 of the Revised Code and other provisions of law pertaining to ethics, conflicts of interest, and financial disclosure. As used in division (A) of this section, "appropriate ethics commission" does not include the Ohio ethics commission.

(2) The board of commissioners on grievances and discipline of the supreme court shall issue advisory opinions only in a manner consistent with Rule V of the Supreme Court Rules for the Government of the Bar of Ohio.

(B) The Ohio ethics commission may recommend legislation relating to ethics, conflicts of interest, and financial disclosure and may render advice with regard to questions concerning these matters for persons for whom it is the appropriate ethics commission. When the Ohio ethics commission renders a written formal or staff advisory opinion relating to a special set of circumstances involving ethics, conflict of interest, or financial disclosure under Chapter 102. or section 2921.42 or 2921.43 of the Revised Code, the person to whom the opinion was directed or who was similarly situated may reasonably rely upon the opinion and shall be immune from criminal prosecutions, civil suits, or actions for removal from his office or position of employment for a violation of Chapter 102. or section 2921.42 or 2921.43 of the Revised Code based on facts and circumstances covered by the opinion, if the opinion states there is no violation of Chapter 102. or section 2921.42 or 2921.43 of the Revised Code. The commission shall provide a continuing program of education and information concerning the provisions of Chapter 102. and sections 2921.42 and 2921.43 of the Revised Code and other provisions of law pertaining to ethics, conflicts of interest, and financial disclosure. [Am. Sub. H.B. 285, effective 03-02-94.]

Section 102.08*

* See also preceding version of this section and explanation below.

(A) The Ohio ethics commission, the board of commissioners on grievances and discipline of the supreme court, and the joint legislative ethics committee may recommend legislation relating to ethics, conflicts of interest, and financial disclosure, and render advisory opinions with regard to questions concerning these matters for persons for whom it is the appropriate ethics commission.

(B) When the Ohio ethics commission or the board of commissioners on grievances and discipline of the supreme court renders an advisory opinion relating to a special set of circumstances involving ethics, conflict of interest, or financial disclosure under Chapter 102., section 2921.42, or section 2921.43 of the Revised Code, the person to whom the opinion was directed or who was similarly situated may reasonably rely upon such opinion and shall be immune from criminal prosecutions, civil suits, or actions for removal from his office or position of employment for a violation of Chapter 102., section 2921.42, or section 2921.43 of the Revised Code based on facts and circumstances covered by the opinion, if the opinion states there is no violation of Chapter 102., section 2921.42, or section 2921.43 of the Revised Code.

(C) When the joint legislative ethics committee renders an advisory opinion that has been publicly sought and that relates to a special set of circumstances involving ethics, conflicts of interest, or financial disclosure under Chapter 102. or section 2921.42 or 2921.43 of the Revised Code, the person to whom the opinion was directed or who was similarly situated may reasonably rely upon such opinion and shall be immune from criminal prosecutions, civil suits, or actions for removal from his office or position of employment for a violation of Chapter 102. or section 2921.42 or 2921.43 of the Revised Code based on the facts and circumstances covered by the opinion, if the opinion states that there is no violation of Chapter 102. or section 2921.42 or 2921.43 of the Revised Code. When the joint legislative ethics committee renders an advisory opinion that has been publicly sought, the advisory opinion is a public record available under section 149.43 of the Revised Code.

(D) When the joint legislative ethics committee renders a written opinion that has been privately sought and that relates to a special set of circumstances involving ethics, conflicts of interest, or financial disclosure under Chapter 102. or section 2921.42 or 2921.43 of the Revised Code, the written opinion does not have the legal effect of an advisory opinion issued under division (C) of this section. When the joint legislative ethics committee renders a written opinion that has been privately sought, the written opinion is not a public record available under section 149.43 of the Revised Code. The proceedings of the legislative ethics committee relating to a written opinion that has been privately sought shall be closed to the public and records relating to these proceedings are not public records available under section 149.43 of the Revised Code.

The person to whom a written opinion is issued under this division may request the committee to issue the written opinion as an advisory opinion. Upon receiving such a request and with the approval of a majority of the members of the committee, the committee may issue the written opinion as an advisory opinion. If the committee issues the written opinion as an advisory opinion, the advisory opinion has the same legal effect as an advisory opinion issued under division (C) of this section and is a public record available under section 149.43 of the Revised Code.

(E) The joint legislative ethics committee shall issue an advisory opinion under division (C) of this section or a written opinion under division (D) of this section, whether it is publicly or privately sought, only at a meeting of the committee and only with the approval of a majority of the members of the committee.

(F) The appropriate ethics commission shall provide a continuing program of education and information concerning the provisions of Chapter 102. and sections 2921.42 and 2921.43 of the Revised Code and other provisions of law pertaining to ethics, conflicts of interest, and financial disclosure. Appendix B

Recommended Guidelines and Best Practices for Managing Public Record E-mails

I. Authorized Public E-mail Senders

Generally speaking, the individual sending a qualifying e-mail message should be knowledgeable on the qualifications of a public record and know what the office retention schedule is. Additionally, they should maintain the e-mail record; due to the varied uses of e-mail, each e-mail should be dealt with on a per-office basis.

Every office is to have designated (by Elected Official or Department Head) e-mail users that can receive e-mail from outside of the County system (public). All other non-designated e-mail users, in each office, will be blocked from receiving emails from public e-mail sources. Restricted e-mail users will still retain the ability to send/receive emails to other Wood County offices that use the same e-mail system.

Restricted e-mail users should refrain from sending e-mails that qualify as a public record. Public correspondence via e-mail should only be done by the designated users that have public record knowledge so that the e-mails can be retained correctly. As a recommendation, all offices should have a general e-mail address (officename@co.wood.oh.us) that can be used to receive public correspondence and monitored by more than one employee.

II. Methods of Filing Record Qualifying E-mail

After a brief period in your Inbox/Sent Items e-mail folders, messages should be transferred to folders to facilitate categorizing for the appropriate retention schedule.

E-mail messages that qualify as public records are also governed by the records retention schedule. They may be maintained in several ways:

A. Off Line Storage: Printing the e-mails for filing.

B. On Line Storage: E-mail on the County e-mail system is filed electronically for a designated period (refer to the appropriate office retention schedule) unless deleted. Deleted e-mails can only be recovered for 30 days. After that time period, they cannot be recovered.

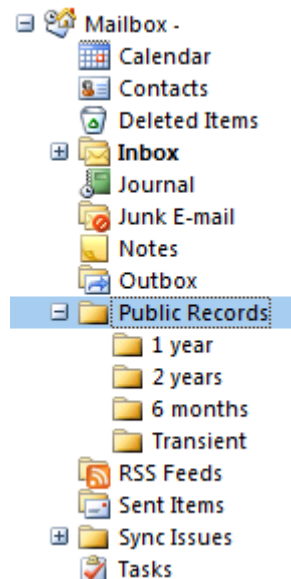

1. Employees should set up folders in the e-mail folder structure to organize messages according to the record retention schedules of their appointing authority. Then, such messages assigned according to this folder structure can be handled based on those retention schedules. These designated folders must be stored inside the user's mailbox and cannot be stored in any archive or personal folder. Periodically (daily or weekly), the retention folders should be viewed to determine if any emails in the folders have expired. All expired emails should be deleted and not retained past their designated expiration period unless a litigation hold has been communicated to the office/user.

E-mail messages that have significant administrative, legal and/or fiscal value and are scheduled in excess of 2 years should be printed and filed according to the office retention schedule. The associated e-mails could be filed electronically in a folder designated for a 2 year retention period, then deleted after that time period has expired.

2. Example of an On Line E-mail Storage System

Handlers of public record e-mails should create folders in their mailbox to sort emails based on their type of record (transient, 6 months, 1 year, 2 years, etc...). Example shown below:

Copies of public record emails that are sent should also be saved in folders based on their type of record.

- C. Mixed Storage: Storing a printed copy of the e-mail for filing as well as the original electronic version in the County e-mail system.

III. Subject Lines

Subject lines should be as descriptive as possible for future searches and identification. Always fill in the subject line when creating an e-mail. Filling in the subject line on an e-mail helps both the recipient identify and file messages, and to help file messages that must be retained.
